THE PERFECT STABLE BOY,

Reddy...

WORKS FOR PENNIES, CLEANS IN MINUTES!

Most dairymen agree that, of all jobs in dairying, cleaning barn gutters is the closest to being all work and no profit. But it has to be done! And with an electric barn cleaner, Reddy Kilowatt, your electric farm helper, does the job in a fraction of the fork-and-wheelbarrow time. Yes, for mere pennies, the average dairy farmer can save an hour or more daily for more productive and profitable dairying duties, the electric way. There are types of electric barn cleaners to suit just about any dairy barn layout. A talk with your local farm equipment dealer . . . or your PP&L Farm Representative . . . will help you choose the barn cleaner exactly suited to your needs. And how electric barn cleaning can save you time and money. See them today!
