

OWL LAFFS

BY A WISE OWL

Look, if you guys think I can fill this column without you sending me some good laffs, you're crazy. So, come on, let's hear from you.

Dick Gerlitzki, at Florin, has a pet expression "that he'll never take any (dirt) of anybody", — — — but he retracted that the other evening when he went out to tend his prize pigeons. — — — They weren't the least bit bothered by his threat and gave him the business all over his head.

One of the fellows over at the fire house asked "Mushey" Good if it is wrong for a man to drink like a fish?

"Mushey" replied: "Not as long as he drinks what fish drink."

Many a good beau plays second fiddle.

Before my wife went to the beauty parlor she looked like a little old woman 90 years old. When she came out of the beauty parlor, she didn't look like a little old lady anymore . . . she looked like a little old man!

A bigamist is one who makes the same mistake twice.

My new suit is a Loch Lomond Tweed. You know what a Loch Lomond Tweed is — the vest takes the high road, the pants take the low road and your wife's in your pockets afore ya.

'Tis better to be well formed than informed.

A southern gentleman stopped in at Kaylor's bar on Friday night and asked Les for a "Louisville Fizz."

"A Louisville Fizz? How do you make that?" asked Les.

"Why, sir, it's 32 parts gin and one part soda," replied the southerner.

"Shall I squeeze a bit of lemon peel into it?" asked Les.

"Sir!" answered the customer. "If I want a lemonade, I'll ask for it."

"Dyke" Garber didn't do so good with his last get-rich-quick project — — — Now he's working on a new one — — — He's trying to graft strawberries with milkweed. To get strawberries and cream from the same plant. — — — That ought to pay off!

A girl on West Donegal St. says she gotta stop watching wrestling on television — She says she getting too clever for her boy friend."

Clyde Nissly was telling the boys at Darrenkamps', that the best place in the world to find a helping hand—is at the end of your own arm!

A serious impediment to marriage nowadays is the increasing difficulty of supporting the government and a wife on the same income.

Did you hear about the crook who went to the box office and said, "I don't like the picture, give me everybody's money back!"

It's too bad a girl can't get married without dragging some innocent man to the altar with her.

A newly wed on North Barbara Street asked her hubby if he will love her if she grows fat?

The young husband quickly answered: "Heck, no! I promised for better or worse, not through thick and thin."

Letters To The Editor

To the Sport fans of Mount Joy:
I am in receipt of a very fine letter that I thought you may want to read.

It spells out sportmanship which in my mind is as important as winning and at the same time cancels out the accusations hurled at us on the Fountain Hill basketball game. Enough said. As we were accused as hard losers and what not, but here I want to pause a minute and pay tribute to a fighting coach, Donald Staley, who is coaching our Midgets as well as the Donegal High coach, who has been in there fighting every minute for the boys. Here is the letter:

Mr. Benjamin Groff
Mt. Joy, Pa.

Dear Mr. Groff:
I want to convey through you our thanks for the treat which you folks from Mt. Joy gave to our baseball team on Tuesday evening of this week after our game there. So far as our boys were concerned, the kindness on your part was all the more remarkable because it came after your boys had been defeated. I am sure that the subject lesson in good sportmanship which your group showed will be one that will long be remembered by these boys and by those of us who participated in the affair.

I am sure that your generosity both to your boys and to our boys is doing much to make them better youngsters. Whatever we adults do in that respect, I am sure, well worth doing.
Will you convey our thanks to all the mothers who shared in this fine occasion and to the managers of the Mt. Joy team who entered into the good spirit of the occasion.
Very truly yours,
SAMUEL S. WENGER

Tuesday August 16, at 6:15 the third annual baseball game between the Mt. Joy Old Timers and the Midgets will be played on the grade school grounds. The Old Timers line up will be announced later.

Don't miss the game if you want some laughs and thrills as the old boys will furnish it for you. By your support you will be showing the Old Timers you are back of their programs of sponsoring the kids in worthwhile projects. A collection will be lifted to keep the kids playing.
In paying tribute to Mr. Staley I want to also mention our staff of Bernie Kear, the manager, the assistant coach, Bruce Brown, and Henry Klugh Sr. who give their time and transportation free.
BENJ. F. GROFF,
President of Mt. Joy Old Timers
