LOCAL PLAYERS IN TENNIS MATCHES AT MARIETTA PARK

On Friday evening at Memorial Park, Marietta at 6:30 there will be tennis matches by some prominent players.

This is the time when the president of the Marietta Lions Club, Arthur T. Zuch, will present the new tennis courts to the Borough president, Leroy Appley.

Through the efforts of the local Lions club with a committee of Frank K. Seaman and Robert Vanderslice, Marietta now has new tennis courts at Memorial Park.

During the course of construction the committee at various times had help from other Lions and were assisted by other townspeople.

The total cost of this project was $2,000 and a hearty vote of thanks should go from every one to the Marietta Lions Club.

The following will participate:

Gene Crider, Lancaster, Lancaster County singles champion, 1954 and 1955; Dr. Harold Feltenbaum, Mount Joy, Lancaster County singles finalist 1950, 1951, 1952, 1955; Ben Brown, Mount Joy, No. 2 player on the University of Pennsylvania tennis team; Frank Zink, Mt. Joy, Lancaster County singles champion 1951 and 1952.

"TIME OUT FOR GINGER" AT GRETTA

George Curley, now in his third season at Gretna Playhouse, will take an important role in the Broadway comedy, "Time Out for Ginger", which starts a weeks run tonight. The show, presented by Gene P. Otto and Charles F. Cogan, director, will run through August 17th.

Curley, who is assistant stage manager, has appeared in many Gretna productions during the past three summers. Previously, he has done work with several children's theatres, including the Clare Tree Major company; summer theatres, the Equity Library Theatre and touring productions. He has acted in "The Happy Time", "Tobacco Road", "Harvey", "Bell, Book and Candle", "Pygmalion", "Gramercy Ghost" and many others. Stars with whom he has worked include Dorothy Gish, Veronica Lake, Claude Rains and Frank McHugh. He also played in the film, "Cinemas Holiday". Curley has studied in both England and the U. S. and holds a teaching degree in speech and drama.

In "Time Out for Ginger" he will play opposite Vanita Brown who will be seen in the title role. Miss Brown's sisters will be portrayed by Margaret Stewart and Francine Barrera. Their parents will be acted by Earl Montgomery and Rei Terry. Others in the cast will be Dorothy Reese, Robert Cleveland, Jackson Young and Gene Galvin. The setting will be by Robert DeMora.
