BOUQUETS TO WATER AUTHORITY
Positive action of the Mount Joy Borough Water Authority on the appointment of fiscal agents to handle financial details for the sewer project deserves commendation of the community.

By so doing the Authority has taken one of the necessary steps forward assuring a minimum of delay in getting the job under way.

We look forward to an early beginning on the project and urge the community's full cooperation in the months ahead, as the necessary work moves forward.

SALES DAYS THIS WEEKEND

The Retail Merchants of Mt. Joy and Florin have gone all out in planning their Summer Sales Days which are being held this weekend.

As an added convenience to shoppers the merchants are offering free parking. Anyone who patronizes local stores during this sales event will be reimbursed for parking expenditures simply by asking any one of the participating merchants for parking money.

This is a real opportunity for Mr. and Mrs. Householder to make their dollars go further than in many a moon. The values are as good or better than values offered in various Sales Days in the area.

Mount Joy and Florin merchants again have put forth an extra effort to show shoppers that it pays to "Buy in Mount Joy and Florin and Save."

Dietitian Explains Operation Of School Lunch Program

To assist all parents and students to have a better understanding of the goals of the School Lunch Program at Donegal High School, Mrs. Catherine Bennett, School Dietitian presents this article as the first of a series:

The School Lunch Program is centered around the student — his nutrition, his physical, mental and emotional development and his education.

The School Lunch aims to foster good food habits and safeguard the health of the school child. The noon meal served at school fulfills its nutritional purpose only when it supplies at least one third of the days requirements for calories, proteins, vitamins, and minerals. Its contribution of nutrients should be such that, in combination with breakfast and the evening meal typical of those served in homes of the community, the total daily needs of the child will be met.

The Type "A" Lunch which is our classification specifies that the basic foods be included daily as follows:

Milk - one-half pint of fresh whole milk.

Protein - rich foods - 2 oz. serving of cooked or canned lean meat, poultry; or 2 ounces of fish; or one-half cup of cooked dried beans, peas; or 4 tablespoons of peanut butter; or one egg; or a combination of one half of the listed quantities of any two of these items.

Vegetables & Fruit—at least three-fourths cup serving of raw or cooked vegetables and/or fruit.

Bread—at least one slice of bread or one serving of hot bread made of enriched or whole grain cereal.

Butter or Fortified Margarine—at least two teaspoons per child. This may be used as a spread on bread, as a seasoning or in food preparation.

These essentials are closely checked in menu preparation. Other factors which must also be considered are variety of food, proper preparation, attractive service and appetite appeal. The ultimate aim is to serve appetizing, moderately priced food under pleasant surroundings.

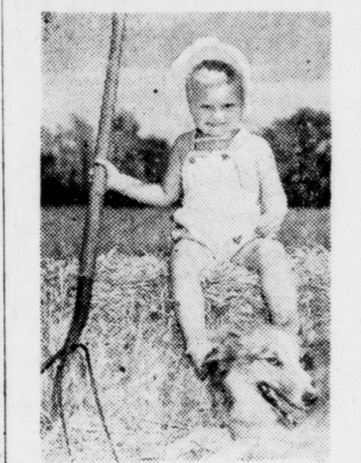

In planning the school lunch menu, new foods are introduced frequently for variety because a balanced diet is most easily achieved when it includes a wide variety of foods. Learning to like new foods is an important educational experience in building food habits that will insure good nutrition.

The interest of all parents for this program would be appreciated.

The menu for the first two weeks of school is centered around these nutritional values as follows: Wednesday, September 7, grilled cheese sandwich, buttered corn, potato chips, applesauce and milk; Thursday, meatballs in tomato sauce, cabbage slaw, roll and butter, fruit jello with whipped cream and milk; Friday, fish sticks, buttered potatoes, vegetable salad, bread and butter, chocolate cake, milk; Monday, Sept. 12, vegetable soup with saltines, ham salad sandwiches, pickle chips, sliced pineapple and milk.

Tuesday, Sept. 13, baked spaghetti with meat sauce, buttered peas, bread and butter, fresh fruit and milk; Wednesday, baked lima beans with bacon, havard beets, roll and butter, chocolate pudding and milk; Thursday, barbeque beef

Farm Life Is New to Her

Susy seems to be a little uncertain as to just what Farm life is all about. She and her brother and Mother and Dad from New York City are spending a week on one of Pennsylvania's new vacation farms. They learn about an entirely new life while they live with their farm hosts. They'll have the pleasure of fishing and swimming in the old swimming hole, and it's a cinch they'll never forget the heaping farm tables and the cool fresh air. The farm vacations are organized by Pennsylvania Farm Vacations with headquarters in Mount Joy, Lancaster County. Member farms are scattered all over the state, and are largely farms that have extra housing space and a farm family that has a liking for company. The member farms are widely advertised in large city newspapers and the vacation inquiries go directly to the member farms. Guests' rates vary from $30 to $40 a week per person—an economical vacation for the city folk, and nice "pin" money for the farm family.

Oldest Resident Of Mount Joy, Rev. Abram Z. Hess Dies At 96

Succumbs at 96

REV. ABRAM Z. HESS

The Rev. Abram Z. Hess, who celebrated his 96th birthday last June, died at 8:45 p. m. Wednesday at his home, 215 Marietta Ave., Mt. Joy, following an illness of several days. Rev. Hess was the borough's oldest resident.

A native of Pequea Twp., he was a son of the late Abram M. and Ann Zeiger Hess and was a member and former minister of the Crossroads Brethren in Christ Church. He was ordained April 22, 1894 and served as a minister of the church from that time until 1946. During his active ministry he traveled for the church throughout the West and Canada and preached in the Donegal district of 5 churches for 35 years.

He has been blind for the past 25 years and when this affliction caused him to retire from the active ministry he turned to wood carving as a hobby. He had been a carpenter for many years and this knowledge aided him in turning out many artistic containers, made in all shapes and sizes out of cedar, wild cherry and maple wood.

As a result of this hobby, which to the Rev. Mr. Hess was a second occupation, his physical facilities remained keen until a few days before his death.

The minister, whose wife, the former Elizabeth Musser, died in 1941, was also an active farmer in East Donegal Twp. during his early life. He taught himself the carpentry trade while farming and the first building he erected by himself was a large farm shed.

Surviving are these sons and daughters: Mrs. Anna Zercher, Mount Joy; Miss Mary M. Hess at home; Abram M. and Henry M. Hess, both of Mount Joy R1; Katie, wife of Stephen Heisey, Center Hall, Pa., and Benjamin M. Hess, Englewood, Ohio.

Also surviving are 21 grandchildren and 40 great grandchildren. He was the last of his immediate family.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p. m. Sunday from the residence. At 2:00 at the Crossroads Brethren in Christ church. Interment in the Crossroads cemetery.

Friends may call at the residence between 7 and 9 p. m. Saturday.

Six Explorers To Tour New England States

The group will travel thru New York state to Vermont's Green Mountains to New Hampshire and into Maine where their destination is Baxter State Park, at Mount Katahdin. The boys will stay at Baxter Park for five days. While there they will take hikes of approximately 50 miles from their camp along the Appalachian Trail which has its beginning near Baxter.

James Kraybill, Manheim, will be in charge of the group and members of the group are Scott Carpenter, Marietta; Ronald Gotwalt, Peter Nissley, James Pennell, Kenneth Wittle, Florin; and Jacob Zeller.

Town Concerned With Noises

Monday night, residents of the borough and surrounding countryside were aroused by a strange "horn noise". According to some residents, both old and young who walked toward the noise, rode bicycle and drove automobiles, the noise was traced to a farmhouse near the former "Garfield" school house, southeast of the borough.

Previously reported stories included anything from train wrecks to someone being lost in the woods to space ships arriving. The noise was being made by a threshing rig with cement-mixer type attachment.

Why the outbreak which drove people from their homes in search of the serious trouble since the horns sounded like distress signals? It turned out to be an old fashioned serenade for the newly-married Mr and Mrs. Lloyd Swarr.
