Girl Scouts Plan Camp And Craft Sessions

Seven workshop and camp programs are being offered for Girl Scout leaders in Lancaster County. A tinware course will begin September 20, 7:30, at the home of Mrs. C. H. Risser, 2020 Columbia Avenue, Lancaster County, with three sessions; a ceramics course of three sessions will begin Oct. 3, 7:45, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Brown, Marietta.

Basketry will be conducted in three sessions beginning on Sept. 13, 7:30, at the home of Mrs. Floyd Shuman, Maytown; Dennison crafts Sept. 15, 7:30, by Miss Betty Fallon, Bethany Presbyterian Church, Lancaster; and elementary crafts such as needlework, bookbinding, knotting and braiding, book-binding, stencil work, spinning and weaving, Oct. 12, at the home of Gardner Criswell, 131 North Eighth Street, Columbia.

Three sessions, Oct. 6, 13, and 20, plus the weekend of October 22 and 23, will be held to conduct the troop camp course. Primitive Camp Course will be given in three sessions and a three-day weekend, Sept. 22, 29 and Oct. 6 plus the weekend of Oct. 7, 8 and 9.

Registrations must be sent to the Girl Scout office immediately for the September courses and a week in advance for the October courses. Registrations will be accepted by mail or phone.

School Enrollment Is Increase

Nationwide Insurance Company was awarded the student's insurance for the Mount Joy Elementary School. The decision was made following appearances of three firms at the board meeting of the group last Thursday. Jack Tyndall is the local representative of the firm.

Charles Heaps, principal, announced his enrollment figures. With an increase of thirteen over last year's totals, there are 393 in the school. There are 47 in kindergarten; 53 in first grade; 69 in second; 69 in third; 64 in fourth; 48 in fifth; and 43 in sixth.

Mrs. Alva Bender was named the home-bound teacher for the year. Following the meeting, the board members toured the building inspecting the repairs made during the summer. These repairs included mostly painting. A. D. Seiler, president, was in charge of the meeting.

DIRECTOR VISITS JAYCEES TUESDAY

Sam Meisenhelder, York, national director of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, was a guest at the regular meeting of the group Tuesday evening. During the discussions of the evening, it was decided to enter a float in the local community exhibit parade. O. K. Snyder, Jr., president, was in charge of the meeting.

ENGAGEMENTS

SMITH — MILLER
Mr. and Mrs. Irvin M. Smith Jr., 135 New Haven Street, Mt. Joy, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Ann, to Donald L. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Miller, Columbia R1.

Miss Smith is a graduate of Mount Joy High School, class of 1954, and is employed as a stenographer at the Grey Iron Casting Company, Mt. Joy.
