Surviving are a son, Raymond M., Florin; four daughters, Ruth M., wife of Albert S. Walters, Mount Joy; Violet M., wife of Albert F. Nentwig, of Florin, and Edith B., wife of John Johnson, and Elva I., wife of Aaron Shaub, both of Akron, Ohio; six grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

Also surviving are two sisters, Elizabeth, wife of Joseph Shaw, Mountville, and Mary Bradley, Lancaster.

NEW POLICY IS SIMPLIFIED

"We believe Nationwide Mutual Insurance new policy is the most concise insurance contract ever written," said Jack E. Tyndall, local representative. "The company has long felt that an insurance agreement should be as well understood by the man-in-the-street who buys it as by the insurance technicians who write and service it."

In transforming its old basic policy into the new, the company cut the number of words from 6092 to 2843, he said. It increased the size of type, widened space between lines, and placed 15 cartoons throughout the contract.

ALTAR ROSARY SOCIETY MEETS

The first meeting of the Altar and Rosary Society of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary church was held recently at the home of Mrs. F. M. Luder, Park Avenue.
