Florin Lions Hear Talk On Shick

Dr. Hugh J. Coleman, veterinarian, was admitted to the Florin Lions Club last week at the club's regular meeting at the Clearview Diner. Cecil Arrowsmith, Lancaster, a representative of the Shick Company gave a brief history of his company which included the moving of the company to Lancaster. He expressed appreciation for the reception given the company by the people of Lancaster County.

Arthur K. Greiner, deputy district, visited the club and told about the Lions flood relief project. The club voted to donate $50 to the project. Visitors included Paul Gerber, Elizabethtown; Victor Koser and Sylvester Shuman, Mt. Joy.

Sixteen members of the club will attend the fall rally of the Lions of Lancaster County Monday night at the Ephrata Legion home. Monroe L. Knute, immediate past president of Lions international, will be the guest speaker. For the members of the club who are not able to attend the rally, John Hess, president, has arranged for a round table meeting at the diner with Woodrow Fitzkee in charge.

The auditor's report of the borough authority was read to the group by their attorney, Ralph Stine.

Samuel Miller, president of the authority, announced that the water mains will be extended to the new borough limits on the eastern new borough limits.

Henry Smeltzer, borough supervisor, was told to give copies of garbage and refuse hauling ordinances to all the residents received into the borough through the recent annexation.

William Brian, secretary of borough council, handed in his resignation effective January 1. Mr. Brian has been secretary of the council group for eight years. Prior to that time, he was also assistant secretary for a number of years.

Made Delinquent Collector
George Brown III, tax collector, was named delinquent tax collector following the acceptance of his final settlement sheet of 1954 taxes. The outstanding real estate taxes are $479; the per capita, $1,528. Mr. Brown was also granted the authority to get the taxes through wage attachments and by calling in outside collection agencies if he wishes to do so.

Plan Accepted
Following the approval of the John Melhorn building area by the borough zoning commission, the borough council members went on record approving that part which is within the borough limits. According to the report, Richland Avenue will be started in the near future.
