The service will commence on Sunday evening, Oct. 23, at 8 p.m. and will continue through Sunday, Oct. 30, with the exception of Saturday. Rev. Tate will preach the sermon each evening.

Rev. Tate's first charge, after receiving his master's degree in theology at Temple University, was the Mt. Joy Presbyterian church. A man of dynamic personality and keen sense of humor, he was an active minister as well as preacher. Sparking the enthusiasm of the young people, he organized a Westminster Fellowship in the church as well as a Retreat for younger groups of the whole Presbytery at Donegal.
