1956 PONTIAC 870 FOUR-DOOR SEDAN MORE POWERFUL — The popular Pontiac 870 four-door sedan offers more power and higher performance in 1956 with its bigger 205 h.p. Strato-Streak V-8 engine, and an improved Hydra-Matic transmission that gives smooth economical performance. Displacement of the 1956 Strato-Streak V-8 has been increased to 316.6 cubic inches and compression raised to 8.9:1. Exciting new colors in "Vogue" two-toning, sumptuous interiors and new styling features add new beauty to the four-door sedans, available in all three series.

Librarians Attend Conference At M. S. T. C.

Twenty-two student library assistants and two librarians, Mrs. Mary Llewellyn and Mrs. Mariyn Herr, were among the approximate 500 from southeastern Pennsylvania who attended the ninth annual school library club conference at Millersville State Teachers College last Saturday. In addition, another group of students from Donegal entertained with a musical interlude during the afternoon.

A bottler ensemble made up of Loretta Hornafius Kay Kauffman, Paula Weien, Douglas Fish, Judy Naugle and Gary Zeller opened this interlude. Kay Kauffman and Judy Naugle presented several flute duets and Gary Zeller recited "Little Bop Riding Hood". Douglas Fish, Joyce Berrier, Loretta Hornafius and Paula Weien, members of a clarinet quartet, also played several numbers.

Miss Phyllis Fenner, editor, author, story-teller and librarian, spoke to the student librarians on the pleasures of library work and demonstrated one of its phases, that of story-telling. During the business meeting, pins were presented to the officers of the organization, after

ENGAGEMENTS

DRESCHER — GLICK
 Mr. and Mrs. John L. Drescher, Mount Joy R1, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to James Glick, of North Lawrence, Ohio.

Miss Drescher is employed by Paul A. Martin, Inc., and her fiancé is in carpentry work in Ohio.

BROWN — KNEISLEY
 Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown, of Leacock, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to Melvin Kneisley, son of Levi G. Kneisley, Salunga, and the late Mrs. Kneisley.

Miss Brown is employed by Shorenson Co., Brownstown, and Mr. Kneisley, by J. Miller Eshleman and Son, Landisville. No date has been set for the wedding.

which the students were taken on guided tours on the college campus.

Some students remained at the college for dinner and later in the evening attended the High School Drama Night. At that time individuals from the college student body entertained; one of these was Sonja Carvera '55 graduate of Donegal, who presented a monologue. Short plays were enacted by students from the North York Central High School and the William Penn High School, York.

Band Clinic Held At Local School

Band clinic was held at the local elementary school last week. Demonstrations of various band instruments was conducted by the Shireman's Music House of Sinking Springs. Following the demonstration, letters were sent to parents telling about the instruments preferred by the children.

For eight weeks, the students will play his instrument on a trial basis. Meredith Germer is the instrumental teacher. Mr. Germer is a graduate of Lebanon Valley College and now plays in the Harrisburg Symphony Orchestra.

Mrs. George Broske, band director, announced that this year she lost 23 band members. These were lost through sixth graders entering Donegal High plus a few who moved from the borough. With younger children learning to play instruments the band will constantly have replacements. Already this school year, the band made two public appearances - the local Halloween parade and the local Community Exhibit parade.

Hospital Auxiliary To Meet Thursday

Next Thursday, Nov. 17, is the date of the regular meeting of the Mount Joy branch of the United Auxiliaries to the Lancaster General Hospital. The meeting is being held one week earlier due to Thanksgiving and will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Newcomer, South Market Street, at 8 p. m.

A highlight of the evening will be a "miniature" bazaar. This feature will have on display and for sale items that the members made toward the "make a dollar grow" project. Members may purchase the items from the bazaar table. Members who made items and have already sold them will report on their individual projects also.

The second part of the evening's program will be the completion of the Christmas kits which are being made by the group. Mrs. Bruce Greiner is chairman of the ways and means committee and Mrs. Eric Olson is president of the group.

MIRIAM ROLAND TO APPEAR ON TV

Miriam Roland Donegal High School senior, will appear on a half-hour library education television program Monday, Nov. 21, at 9 a. m. This program is one of a series of vocational programs being presented over WGAL-TV by the Millersville State Teachers College.
