THE BULLETIN, Mount Joy, Pa. Thursday, January 5 8

FARM SHOW

sized at a special booth by groups of girls from public school home economics departments.

And farm women and girls will have home economics exhibits on cooking, baking, canning an d sewing which promise to be more extensive than ever, officials say.

The exposition will be open daily from 8 A.M. to 10 P.M., Monday through Friday, although on the final day the show closes down at 6 P.M.

Free parking space for approximately 14,000 cars is provided next to the Farm Show Building.

According to reports of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce advance reservations for overnight accommodations are record high. Nearly 100 school groups have asked for rooms and several hundred other school and adult farm groups can be expected for one-day trips.

Bus loads will be coming in from nearly all nearby states as well as from every section of Pennsylvania. Farm Show Commission officials say.
