Weddings

BIGLER—LAMBERT

Miss Betsy K. Bigler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin B. Bigler, 258 W. Main St., Mount Joy, became the bride of Richard A. Lambert, 826 Janet Ave. Lancaster, Saturday at ten o'clock in the morning in St. Anne's Church. The Rev. Hubert McQuire performed the double ring ceremony. Mr. Lambert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Lambert, Saco, Maine.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her honor attendants were Miss Joan Frey and her sister, Mrs. John J. Boyer.

The bride's gown was fashioned of white silk shantung featuring a scoop neckline with a lace insert. The fitted bodice with long tapering sleeves was accented with a lace applique. The full skirt was ballerina length. Her short, illusion veil was attached to a matching cloche hat. She carried a white orchid on a Prayer Book.

Both attendants wore ballerina length gowns of coral crystallite with scoop necklines accented with accordion pleating, fitted bodices, and cap sleeves. The full skirts were fashioned with back interest of an accordion-pleated panel and bow. Their matching cloche hats were trimmed with pearls.

William W. Hardy, Bird-in-Hand, was best man for the bridegroom. His ushers were John J. Boyer, and John A. Markoski, both of Lancaster. Mrs. Fred Sherbahn played the nuptial music with Miss Mary Ann Atinger, soloist.

Following a reception held at the General Sutter Hotel, Litzitz, the couple left on a trip through the South. Upon their return they will reside at 945 E. King St.

The bride is employed as a secretary at the Armstrong Cork Co. She attended Westminster College, New Wilmington. Her husband, a graduate of University of Maine, Orono, Maine, is an engineer for RCA.

ENGAGEMENTS

STEFFY—MCMULLEN

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey K. Steffy, Bird-in-Hand, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lyndell B., to Robert E. McMullen, Mt. Joy R1, a son of Robert McMullen and Mrs. Lottie McMullen.

Miss Steffy, a graduate of E. Lampeter High School, is employed by the Armstrong Cork Co. Her fiance, an employee of the Aircraft-Marine Products, Inc., Mt. Joy, previously served with the Armed Forces stationed in Germany.

No date has been set for the wedding.

MUMMAU—KELLER

Mr. and Mrs. Amos H. Mummau, Elizabethtown R1, announced the engagement of their daughter, Vera, to Charles R. Keller, Mount Joy R2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ammon B. Keller, Annville R1.

Miss Mummau, a graduate of Donegal high school, is employed at Watt and Shand, Lancaster, and Mr. Keller, a graduate of E. Donegal, is employed at N. G. Meyers & Son, Rheims.

Business Clinic By B.P.W. Clubs Is Saturday

Saturday, February 4 is the date of the Pennsylvania Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club's Small Business Clinic to be held in the Appian Room of the Harrisburg Hotel, Harrisburg. Registration for the clinic begins at 9 a.m. and will continue until 4 p.m. with a fee of $3.00.

The program of the day includes a welcome by Miss Hetty E. Stember, chairman, at 10 a.m. followed by a talk on "Why a Small Business Clinic" by Mildred N. Whitby, state president and remarks by the moderator, Miss Helen P. Miller, state vice president.

There will be a recess at 12 noon for luncheon, and the afternoon session will begin at 1:30. The Clinic will adjourn at 4:30 p.m.

A panel of experts in the field of small business will take part in the clinic discussions, and ample time will be allowed for persons in the audience to ask questions about their own particular business problems.

Several of the panel experts are persons who have achieved success by opening their own small business ventures literally "on a shoestring" and they will be at the Clinic on Feb. 4 to give their advice to prospective business owners.

Members of the Harrisburg Business and Professional Women's Club, cooperating with officers of the State Federation are in charge of the clinic.
