Weddings

ZELLER - NEISS
Mrs. Dorothy Zeller, Pinkerton Road, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Risser; and Park Neiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Park Neiss, East Main Street were united in marriage last week in Phoenix, Arizona.

EBY - DENLINGER
Miss Vivian N. Eby, a missionary in Tanganika Territory, Africa, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Eby, of Mount Joy R1, and Chester Denlinger, formerly of Mountville, Pa. were married Wednesday, January 25, in the Mumsa Church, Tanganika Territory, Africa.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Elam Stauffer. They were attended by the Rev. and Mrs. Clyde Shenk. After a trip to Kenya National Park, Mr. and Mrs. Denlinger will be in charge of the Mara Hills School, Tarmine, Tanganika Territory.

SHATTO - McCUE
The marriage of Miss Georgianne R. Shatto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Shatto, 17 E. Main St., Mount Joy, to George W. McCue, son of Mrs. Albert Clinger, 5 Old Dorwart St., Lancaster, and the late George McCue, was solemnized at two o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Rev. C. L. Ulrich officiated at the double ring ceremony which took place in St. Mark's E. U. B. Church, Mount Joy. Jay Barnhart played the traditional wedding music and George Houck, Carlisle, sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white bridal satin and illusion lace. The fitted bodice had a wide V-neck-line and the full satin skirt had lace applique over nylon tulle. The skirt ended in a chapel train. She wore a fingertip length illusion veil which was caught to a fitted lace bonnet, trimmed with pearls and sequins. She carried a white Bible with white orchids.

Mrs. John R. Miller, Mount Joy, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Virginia A. McClean, Lancaster; Miss Barbara Moses and Mrs. R. E. Clausman, both of Washington, D. C.; and Mrs. James Hunter, Shippensburg.

Attendants' Gowns
The matron of honor wore a gown of emerald crystalette, having a fitted bodice with torso effect and a V-neckline, and a full skirt. The bridesmaids' gowns were identical in style to the matron of honor's but in pink crystalette. They wore circlets of matching crystalette and carried bouquets of white carnations.

Betsy O'Connor, Mount Joy, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length gown of pink crystalette and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

John Wolgemuth, Mount Joy, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were John Miller and Jack Lauer, Mount Joy; George Aznavorian, Lancaster; and Leonard Site, Lititz. Philip Wagner, Rheems, cousin of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

A reception in the church social rooms followed the ceremony.

After a trip to the Poconos, the couple will live temporarily at the home of the bride. Mrs. McCue, a graduate of Mount Joy High School and the Maryland Medical Secretarial School, Baltimore, Md., is employed at Olmstead Air Force Base, Middletown.

To Train In Florida
Mr. McCue, also a Mount Joy High School graduate, attended Elizabethtown College. He is now employed at the Mount Joy Mills.

On March 26 the couple will leave for Florida where he will have a six-weeks training course with the Detroit Tigers baseball team. He is signed to play with the Terre Haute, Ind. team. McCue made basketball history for Mount Joy in 1951, when they were Eastern Regional Champions. He also won high basketball scoring honors in Lancaster County that year.

MARRIAGE LICENSES
Robert S. Lauer, 117 West Donegal Street and Velma D. Waltz, 316 North Barbara St. Richard E. Williams, 233 N. Barbara Street and Barbara E. Stump, Lancaster.

"Boots" Exchange

The "boots and rubber exchange" is now in progress in the Mount Joy Elementary School. Started for the first time last year, Charles Heaps announced that the school will again conduct an exchange of boots, rubbers and coats.

Any persons who have outgrown rain apparel that they would like to exchange or donate may do so by bringing it to school. Items of various sizes are now on hand for children needing them. The items are kept in the former projection room on the second floor. Persons wishing to donate items, exchange items, or who need items are asked to contact Mr. Heaps at the elementary school.
