Canon Lnope At St. Luke's Church

The Rev. Canon Victor H. Loope, assistant to the Dean at the Cathedral Church of Saint Stephen's, Harrisburg, will speak at the Lenten service in St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Mount Joy, on Sunday evening, Feb. 26, service beginning at 7 o'clock. He was formerly rector of St. Paul's Church, Woodside, Long Island, N. Y., and came to the Cathedral as assistant last summer.

The motion picture which will be shown during the fellowship hour following Evening Prayer will be "The Upper Room." The story shows Jesus washing the disciples' feet and the consternation aroused among the disciples when Jesus announces that someone will betray him. The picture shows in vivid form the institution of the Lord's Supper and the origin of the elements of Holy Communion. The picture closes with Jesus offering His benediction "Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you."

The public is invited to these services.

The Ladies Bible Class of Trinity E. C. Church will have a food sale on Saturday, Feb. 25th, starting at 9 a. m. in the Church annex on the corner of New Haven and Donagel Sts.

Home Conference At Cross Roads Church

The first Home Conference will be held at the Cross Roads Church Saturday, Feb. 25, 7:30 p.m. and all day Sunday, Feb. 26.

The main speakers include Bishop C. N. Hostetter, Jr., President of Messiah College, Bishop Charlie Byers and Bishop Luke Keefer. On Sunday afternoon there will be opportunity to discuss problems of the family with well qualified instructors. Miss Grace Robb, children's worker at Messiah Lighthouse Chapel, Harrisburg, will have charge of the children. Mrs. Charles Eshleman, teacher at Messiah College will lead the discussion among the single ladies and Doctor Harold Engle among the single men. Bishop Charlie Byers will discuss items of interest with the young married folk. Rev. Kenneth Hoover, chairman of the Brethren in Christ Commission on Home, will direct the discussion among the more mature group.

There will be special music during each session of the Conference by local talent.
