Cubs Are Guests At Florin Lion Club Dinner

Seventy-five persons attended the Father-Son Daughter night of the Florin Lions Club Monday. Special guests of the group were the Cubs of Pack 62 and their leaders.

During the program Jay Snyder led the group singing and Sally Hollinger accompanied on the piano. The Rev. Lester Koder offered the invocation and also spoke to the group on "Youth in Our Community". Introduced by Clarence Hollinger, chairman of the program committee, Rev. Koder challenged the Lions to be thinking of the youth continually, not just once a year.

Rev. Koser said, "Boys and girls are the finest assets in America. Neglected youth causes tragedy and tragedy strikes when parents neglect the children. It is more important to give emotionally security rather than financial support. Watch them 24 hours per day and let them know of the big space in your heart for them. Watch them all the time."

Cubmaster Lloyd Cooke thanked the Lions for the event and for sponsoring Scouting in Florin. He introduced his staff, Earl Rhoads, first assistant Cubmaster; Earl Brightbill, second assistant; Alvin Koser, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Earl Rhoads, Den Mother; Richard Heisey, Den Father; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Koser, Den Mother and Father; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill, Den Mother and Father. The Lion Cub committee consisting of Ralph Oberholzer, Reuben Gooding and Benjamin Staley, was also introduced.

The three dens presented skits; a song dramatization, rope trick and health skit. As a finale, the Cubs formed a circle and gave a grand "howl" to the Lion Club president, John Hess. Mr. Gooding presented the Den Mothers with their certificates.

The entertainment for the evening was supplied by the Luft Studios of Wernersville, a marionette show. Mr. Hess was in charge of the meeting.

CONTEST

for any worthy cause. And, too, this newspaper won to the same degree by having more fully paid in advance circulation coverage in its field—the only kind of circulation that really counts — thus enabling us to render even greater services to both readers and advertisers in all matters pertaining to civil betterment and the upbuilding of this vast fertile area.

To these new readers, and old ones as well whose interest and patronage made this subscription drive the tremendous success it proved to be, we are indeed grateful and indebted. For the trust implied by advancing your subscription one or more years we shall strive to merit that trust and serve you to the best of our ability on behalf of the newspaper staff we extend our most sincere thanks.

Contest judges who tabulated the final votes last Saturday included Elam Bomberger, Samuel Balsbaugh, James B. Heilig, Robert C. Hurst and John Way.
