22,000 Full Fledged Commies In U. S.

In the United States the F.B.I. estimates there are 22,000 full fledged Communists. Many more are classed as Communist sympathizers. Just why any American should be a Communist is hard for Old Timer to understand. We have a higher standard of living, more of the comforts of life than the people of any Communist country have and yet the F.B.I. can find 22,000 people in this country who give allegiance to Moscow, and always they look forward to the world revolution, which "must come," they say. But for the present they say they want peace and I have no doubt that they do, for they are not ready for world revolution. The tragic thing is that we must keep on arming and preparing for a war that nobody wants.

Without putting notions harmful in anybody's head. The babe that squawks the loudest is surest to be fed.
