

FALMOUTH

The Farm Women's Society #6 of Elizabethtown and nearby areas will entertain Society #8 the first Saturday in June, at the home of Miss Lolia Cole.

The society of Farm Women #8 will hold their meeting Saturday May 19th at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Paul Erb, Mount Joy R1. Roll call will be answered with a safety statement. All members come with plenty of change for "Chinese Auction."

Dr. Bruck will speak Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Strickler Mennonite Church and in the evening at 7:30.

At the Edgemont Colored Mennonite Mission the Rev. Ira Z. Miller, Pastor of the Good Mennonite Church will be the speaker at the 10:30 Service.

BAINBRIDGE

Mrs. Elizabeth Hammaker, oldest mother, and Mrs. Jno. E. Eckhart, youngest mother present at the Sunday morning worship service in the Reich's Evangelical Congregational Church were each presented a gift in honor of Mothers' Day. Each mother in attendance at the Sunday School session was presented with a carnation.

Mrs. Dorothy Johns will be toastmistress at the Mother-Daughter banquet to be held on Wednesday evening by the women of the Reich's Evang. Cong. Church at Aunt Sally's Kitchen, Elizabethtown. Mrs. Eckhart will have the invocation and will sing; Miss Martha Roland and Nancy Gable and Phyllis Dupler will sing a duet; a Mothers' Day reading will be featured.

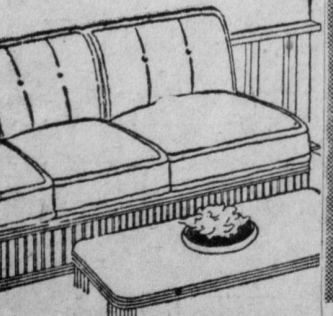

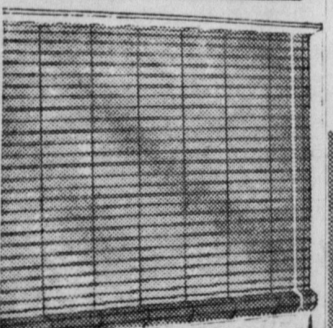

Girls' Day will be observed at the Reich's Church on Sunday, May 27. Mrs. Ross Myers, dean of girls at the McCaskey High School, Lancaster, will be the guest speaker.

Barbecue Is Memorial Day

Another chicken barbecue is being planned for Mount Joy by the Calvin Club of the Mount Joy Presbyterian Church this year. This year's barbecue will be held Memorial Day, May 30. The affair will be held on the church yard to the rear of the church. In case of rain, the event will move indoors to the church basement.

This project is being undertaken by the Calvin Club to raise funds for the new pipe organ currently being installed in the Presbyterian Church.
