HANDS OF DESTINY

The shriveled, wrinkled hands upon the Bible are the hands of an aged ecclesiastic — a preacher of the Holy Word.

For more than half a century they have turned the pages of The Greatest Of All Books to find the text for a sermon, or for a psalm to comfort the sick and the dying... These hands have been raised in blessing and benediction at countless marriages... They have sprinkled the baptismal water on the heads of many infants, and have thumbed the pages of the Holy Writ at the grave-side.

They, are, indeed, Hands of Destiny. Once they were smooth, strong and firm. Now they tremble a bit as they turn the pages of The Book.

Perhaps you know of such a pair of hands — the hands of an aged man of God, who has devoted his entire life in an unselfish attempt to bring comfort, happiness and salvation to you and everyone.

Whether your pastor is young or old, go to Church Sunday, for the hands you see resting upon the Bible, there, whether shriveled or firm, are the hands of a man of God, who offers you the formula for a better and happier life.

With the aim of fostering that which is good in family and community spirit this message is contributed to the religious life of the Community by the following:
