tsburg College, his D.D. from the Lutheran Philadelphia Theological Seminary, his M.A. from the University of Pittsburgh and his Ph.D. from the University of Pennsylvania. He received the Freedom Foundation Award in 1954 and has been guest minister on several dozen camp uses since 1944. Stanley S. Dotterer will play the prelude, "Introduction and Passacaglia" by Regar and the processional hymn will be "Holy, Holy, Holy". The Rev. Samuel O. Brubaker, pastor of the Brethren in Christ church, will offer the invocation; the Rev. Henry T. Becker, pastor of the Florin Church of the Brethren, will have charge of the scripture and prayer and Rev. Brubaker will have charge of the benediction. Rev. Fisher's topic will be "The Odds God Gives". Miss Miriam Roland will sing a solo, "My God and I" and Asher Halbeib will sing "The Lord's Prayer". The service will close with the recessional "Postlude in F" by Widor to be played by Mr. Dotterer.

The second annual Commencement Exercises will be held Thursday night when 114 seniors will receive their diplomas. Dr. Willard Zahn, dean of the teachers college at Temple University, will be the guest speaker and student speakers will be Peggy Wolfe, Carol Ginder, Miriam Roland and Miriam Nell. The first students will be named in each of the seven courses at the school; academic, secretarial, clerical, agricultural, general, industrial arts and home economics. Members of the National Honor Society will be named on the program.

Friday, special awards will be awarded in a special school assembly and an assembly class day will be held next Tuesday, May 29, when other awards will be given to the seniors. At the class day, the class will and other senior features will be included. George McKain is president of the graduating class.

Wolgemuth Chosen President

Charles Wolgemuth was elected president of the Mt. Joy School and Home Association at the Tuesday night meeting of the group. James Pennell was elected vice-president; Mrs. Jay Meckley, re-elected secretary; and Arthur Sprecher, treasurer.

Barbara Stehman was awarded the distinguished service award presented to the outstanding patrolmen of the year. She was presented the award by Sgt. Herman Reis. Barbara had been captain for one semester. Three patrolmen received pins, Judy Nissley, who served as captain for a semester; Arthur Schneider and Dennis Naugle, who were lieutenants for a semester. Dean Gable, of the Lancaster AAA Club, presented each of the sixth grade patrolmen with a certificate. In a talk to the parents, Sgt. Reis discussed the merits of women policemen on duty at dangerous intersections.

Plans were made to sponsor the annual festival in September. Mrs. Myrtle Nornhold and Mrs. Walter Brandt were named co-chairmen of the event with Christ Cover in charge of electrical work; James Pennell, games and stands; and Charles Heaps, general chairman.

The elementary band played two selections for the group. Following the songs, Mrs. George Broske presented each of the sixth grade band members with pins. Mrs. Broske's homeroom received the prize for the largest attendance. The pavilion project was discussed but no action was taken. The group is planning to place a pavilion on the school grounds in order that children may have some escape from the sun since the trees on the grounds have not grown sufficiently to provide shade.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 23. Arthur Schneider, retiring president, was in charge of the meeting.

Connection Fee Set At $200

Three ordinances concerning the costs to the public for the sewer system and plant were passed by borough council and the borough authority Tuesday and Wednesday nights acting in special session.

Connection Fee Set At $200

At Wednesday night meeting of borough council an ordinance requiring that all occupied buildings in the borough be connected with the sanitary sewer system making it unlawful to construct or maintain cesspools, septic tanks, outhouses or other devices for receiving sewage or conduits for discharging of sewage except into sanitary sewers was passed by a unanimous vote.

After the sewer plant is completed as each usable section of the system is completed and ready for public use, borough council will notify the property owners that the sewer is ready for use. The ordinance carries a fine of $100 or in default of payment, 30 days in jail, for not complying with the ordinance.

Front Foot Fee

The borough authority voted unanimously in favor of an ordinance Tuesday night establishing a fee for front foot assessment at $4.50 per foot. This money will be paid to the treasurer of the authority and owners who refuse to pay the assessment within 60 days after the notice is issued will have a lien filed against the property together with a 6% interest charge per annum. But the owner may, upon request by the authority within 30 days after the notice of the assessment is given, ask to pay the amount in installments. A down payment of one-fifth of the total is required. After that, the remainder may be paid in four equal amounts once a year with 6% interest rate.

Connection Fee

The second ordinance passed by the authority set up the connection fee and the early rental fee. The connection fee will be $200. Yearly rentals will be placed in nine different classifications. A dwelling with no water service outlet will cost $16.50 for a six months period. A dwelling with one water service outlet and a half year. Other rates based on a six month period will be industrial establishments, $125; green house, garage or service station and commercial establishment without a toilet, $22; greenhouse garage or service station or commercial establishment with toilet, $30.

Bills for the payment of rates for services will be due and payable on January 1st and July 1st of each year beginning January 1, 1957.

All three ordinances are included in entirety in other sections of this week's newspaper.
