

Check Is Received For Sewer Project

Authority Chairman S. H. Miller hands Martin S. Musser, Union National Mount Joy Bank president, $1,332,305.01 check for financing local sewer project. Also standing are Carl S. Krall, cashier, and D. Victor Shank, assistant cashier of the bank, trustee for the Authority. Seated are Authority officials: William D. Batzel, treasurer; Grant D. Gerberich, secretary, Joseph A. Michels, engineer. (New Era Photo)

James Hill Is Derby Winner

James Hill was the grand prize winner in the auto derby held Saturday by the Florin Cub Scouts. For being the grand prize winner, James was presented with a gold cup. In order to become winner, he had to beat each of the ten winners and the den chief winner.

Preliminary races were held in each of the five dens and among the den chiefs. Jeffrey Nentwig was named winner of Den 1; Jeffrey Koser, Den 2; James Hill, Den 3; Richard Gilerist, Den 4; Doanld Forry, Den 5; and Jerry Koser, den chiefs. The den winners were given Cub Scout sweat shirts and the den chief winner, a Boy Scout compass.

Each of the boys raced his auto made by him during the past month. Racers had to pass certain qualifications as set up by the judges. Thirty boys entered in the competition and raced their autos down a 32-foot ramp. Judges were Benjamin Staley, Ralph Oberholzer and Charles Johnson, members of the sponsoring organization, the Florin Lions Club.

Three awards also were made at the Pack meeting. Robert Brubaker passed his Bobcat badge work and was accepted into Den 5 as a new Cub Scout. Jeffrey Koser passed his bear badge and Ronald Cooke earned a gold arrow.

A food sale was held prior to the race and refreshments were sold to the public during racing time. Also held were four cake walks and one pie walk. Plans were made to hold a family picnic at the Sam Lewis State Park, York County, Saturday, June 23. Any awards earned during the present month will be presented at the picnic. Lloyd Cooke is Cubmaster.

Rotary Sees Film On Dentistry

Mount Joy Rotary club Tuesday noon saw an interesting film depicting the work of the dentists' profession in serving the community.

The film, entitled "An Introduction to Someone You Know," was presented by W. J. Pennypacker, co-manager of the M. O. Gross Dental Laboratories of Lancaster.

JOINS AIR FORCE

Robert A. Williams, twenty-two, 209 West Donegal Street, was included in the group of eleven men who joined the U. S. Air Force. He went to Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas, for basic training.

To Report New Families Call MJ 3-9763

Work Progresses On Schedule

A check for $1,332,305.01 was turned over to officials of the Union National Bank, trustee for the borough authority by the C. C. Collings and Company, Philadelphia, Monday. This check represented the proceeds from a bond issue for the borough's new sewage system.

Three contractors are now at work placing the system in the borough. One company is building the disposal plant on the Nolt farm southeast of the borough, one company is laying pipes in the south part of the borough south of the railroad and the other company is laying pipes in the northern section of the borough north of the railroad. Work on all three is progressing according to schedule.

Miss Griffiths Addresses BPW

Miss Eleanor Griffiths was the guest speaker at the Monday night of the local B.P.W. Club at Hostetter's. Miss Griffiths, home economics teacher in the Warwick High School, showed slides and talked about her stay in Germany as an international exchange farm youth two years ago. Miss Dorothy Schock sang two solos accompanied by Miss Esther Walters.

During the business meeting the group decided to stage a flower show in the fall. Miss Mildred Way was named delegate to the national convention in Miami, in June and Miss Helen Schroll was named alternate. The installation of new officers will take place in June. Annual reports were also given by the committee chairmen.

Baccalaureate Service Held

The second annual Baccalaureate service was held Sunday night at the Donegal High School with the Rev. Wallace Fisher, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, as the guest minister. Rev. Fisher spoke on "The Odds God Gives". Soloists were Miss Miriam Roland and Asher Halbleib. Stanley S. Dotterer, faculty member, presided at the organ.

One hundred fourteen seniors will receive their diplomas tonight in the second annual Commencement Exercises.

Fire Company To Parade Saturday

The Mount Joy Friendship Fire Company will parade in the Lancaster County Firemen's Association parade in Lititz Saturday, June 2. Any members who wish to parade are asked to contact any member of the parade committee. This committee is composed of Ray Myers, Marlyn Myers, Earl Zink, Christ Charles and Elwood Young.

Voters To Register In August

Residents of the area will be given a chance to register for the November presidential election this summer. The Lancaster County Registration Commission has set up 72 special registration sites throughout the county. The campaign will begin Monday, August 13 and continue through Sept. 8. The deadline for registering is Sept. 17.

The registrars will sit at the respective site from 10 a. m. until 3 p. m. and from 7 to 10 p. m. to receive new registrations and changes of address. The registration is all voters who become twenty-one years on or before November 7. Anyone in this group will be eligible to register and cast their vote November 6.

The commission emphasized that registration at the special sites is not limited to the residents of the political subdivision in which the special registrars are sitting. Any resident of the city and county can enroll at any of the special registration centers.

Area sites set up for the special purpose are, H. S. Newcomer Hardware Store, Friday, Aug. 18; Bender's Garage, Milton Grove, for the Milton Grove district of Mount Joy Twp., August 15; Florin Fire Hall for lower district of Mount Joy Township August 24; Maytown Fire Hall, for East Donegal Twp., Aug. 13; Landisville Fire Hall for East Hempfield Twp., Sept. 1.

Memorial Day Is Observed

Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legionnaires were in charge of local Memorial Day Exercises at the two local cemeteries Wednesday. The Rev. John Gable, chaplain of the American Legion Post, gave an address at both cemeteries and the Mt. Joy Elementary School band furnished the music at both.

Three hundred twenty-four American flags were placed on the graves of veterans prior to the service in the Mount Joy, Eberle, Florin, Chiques, Stricklers, Kraybills, Salunga and Landisville cemeteries. If any persons visited the cemeteries and found graves of veterans which did not have a flag or grave marker, they are asked to contact Gerald Sheetz. Both a grave marker and a flag will be supplied.

HEAR "BEE" TALK

Pupils of Miss Edna Charles' first grade were given an illustrated talk on bees Friday afternoon. The students and their teacher walked to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Connor where Dr. O'Connor showed the children his bees and hives in his yard, told them about bees and gave them a sample of honey.

The Mount Joy BULLETIN

FIFTY-FIFTH YEAR, NO. 50 MOUNT JOY, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 31, 1956 SEVEN CENTS PER COPY

Donegal Wins Inter-County Tennis Title

V. F. W. Post To Give 2 Awards

Two $25.00 U. S. Savings bonds will be given to the students with the highest scholastic records in the business and general courses at Donegal High School.

Plans were made to send representatives to the district and state encampments at the Monday night meeting of the local VFW Post 5752, Ralph Rice, John Fisher, Frank Morton and George Albert will attend the district encampment in Adamstown, Sunday, June 3rd. Charles Mateer will attend the state encampment in Philadelphia July 12, 13 and 14. Mr. Morton is alternate. Robert Funk was accepted into the post as a new member.

The post will meet only once a month beginning on June 25 rather than the customary two meetings per month. Mr. Fisher reported on the Poppy Day Sales and Ralph Rice reported on the Memorial Day plans and the recent Christmas decorating committee meeting.

New Ambulance Arrives!

The new Mount Joy Community ambulance arrived in the borough Monday night and was available for use immediately. The five-year old former ambulance was turned over on a trade-in.

The red and white vehicle is being housed in the same garage on the north side of the firehouse as the former ambulance was housed. Donations are still being received to pay for the new vehicle.

V.F.W. Post Awards Prizes

Mount Joy's V. F. W. post presented awards and special gifts during a special school assembly program in the local elementary school Tuesday afternoon. A new nylon American flag was presented to Charles Heaps, principal, for use on the flag pole in front of the school building.

Medals and prizes were presented to the winners in the recent marble tournament sponsored by the post. Ronald Pennell was presented the gold medal for being champion of the local tournament. James Kyle, runner-up, was presented the silver medal and Kenneth Peifer, third place winner, was given a bronze medal.

John Fisher, adjutant of the local VFW Post presented a nylon flag to Charles Heaps, principal, for use on the flag pole located in front of the school. He also presented Mr. Heaps with a briefcase for his assistance in VFW projects.

Band Pins Given Members

Band award pins were presented to the following members of the Mount Joy Elementary School Band: sixth graders, Dennis Naugle, cornet; Lewis Hart, trombone; Janice Berrier, and Linda Shields, clarinet; Connie Anderson, saxophone; Darryl Wittle, saxophone; Cynthia Triple, flute; Carol Buchenauer, bells; Arthur Schneider, snare drum; David Brandt, bass drum; Ronald Eberly, cymbals; Judy Nisley, color guard; Carol Detwiler, color guard; Patty Nonhold, majorette; Barbara Stehman, majorette; and Linda Morton, majorette. A pin was also presented to one fifth grade pupil who will be moving from the borough after the close of school, Gary Holtzman, who plays cornet.

Runners-up in each class were also given marble prizes. They were Janet Nisley, first; William Roberts, second; Kenneth Leakway, third; Martin Reese, fourth; David Allen, fifth and Barry Coover, sixth.

Mr. Heaps was also given a briefcase by the post for his cooperation and assistance in the post projects. The presentations were conducted by Gerald Sheetz, O. K. Snyder, Jr., and John Fisher. Music for the program was in charge of the elementary school band directed by Mrs. George Broske.

Locals Take Play-Off Victory

Donegal High School tennis team won the Inter-County Scholastic League Tennis title for the second straight year.

In a playoff Tuesday afternoon on the Mount Joy Borough courts Donegal downed Manheim Township 6 to 1 to gain the title.

Donegal made a clean sweep in all the single matches but lost the second double match.

The doubles combination of Beaton and Oberholzer downed Clark and Knaver, for the second time this year. Clark and Knaver are the State Champions double team.

This match marked the end for Jack Beaton, Charlie Groff, Ed Crawl and Vernon Oberholzer due to graduation. Coach Roy Arnold remarked these boys will be hard to replace and added we will have to mold a team around Harold Etsell for next year.

Donegal finished third in the strong Central Penna. League, dropping matches to Lancaster and Hershey for their only two defeats in that league, which was won (Turn to page 2)

Auxiliary Donates $350.00

Mrs. Frank Walters, Jr. was installed as the new president of the Mount Joy branch of the United Auxiliaries to the Lancaster General Hospital at meeting held last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Spangler, Park Avenue.

Mrs. James Hostetter was elected vice president, Mrs. Richard Hoffman, recording secretary; Mrs. Jay Musser, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Simon Nissley, treasurer.

During the business meeting the group voted to donate $350 to the linen fund of the hospital. This money was earned by the local group during the past year through various projects.

An afternoon card party has been planned for Wednesday, June 27. The affair which will be held at the local American Legion home from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. Tickets are being sold by the members. One prize will be given to each table.

The party is being held for the benefit of the local hospital auxiliary's fund to the hospital linen fund. Mrs. Frank Zink is chairman of the afternoon event.

Gerald Sheetz pinned medals on the three marble tournament winners, James Pennell, first; James Kyle, second; and Kenneth Peifer, third.

Donegal Student Wins Essay Prize

A Donegal High School sophomore was one of ten students throughout the United States who received a prize in a "Who's Your Teacher" contest sponsored by the "Every Week Current Events Paper". Miss Ruth Krall, South Market Street, was one of ten to receive a prize for her essay.

Miss Krall wrote and submitted a 250-word composition written about Donald Staley, her social studies teacher. In the essay, the students were required to write about the methods the teacher uses and why they like their teachers. For her prize she received $5.00. The ten winners were listed in the recent issue of the national newspaper.

Music Lessons To Be Given in Summer

Summer instrumental lessons will again be given to students and adults under the Adult Recreation Program of the state. H. Morrell Shields will begin the classes June 18. They will continue for eight weeks and will be given in the Donegal High School and the Marietta Elementary School. Any adults and students in the area who are interested in taking advantage of the lessons are asked to contact Mr. Shields.

Mimi O'Connor Chosen Captain

Mimi O'Connor was chosen captain of the sixth grade patrolmen for the first semester of the 1956-57 school term at the Mount Joy Elementary School. The lieutenant chosen was Jeffrey Meckley. Kathleen Dolan was elected secretary. The officers were chosen by the fifth grade patrolmen of the present school term.

Beginning last week, the sixth grade patrolmen began teaching their respective posts to the fifth graders. Until the end of the school year, the fifth graders are taking over the posts in preparation for next year's work.

Senior Awards Presented Today At Donegal High

Seniors awards were presented in a special assembly program this morning, James Pennell, West Main Street, was the recipient of three awards given. He received the Mount Joy VFW Citizenship award, the Rensselaer Alumni Mathematics award and the Danforth Foundation award.

Other awards and their winners are Sloan Science award, Asher Halbleib; Sumpman Instrumental Music award, Ronald Hawthorne, girl to receive the Mt. Joy VFW Citizenship award, Peggy Wolfe; Bausch & Lomb Science award, Louise Horning; girl to receive Danforth Foundation award, Dixie Bair; Lancaster Bar Assoc. Essay award, Julia Loewen; American Chemical Society certificate, Harold Krall.

Sixty-One Promoted

Sixty-one students of the East Donegal Twp. Elementary School were promoted following promotion exercises Tuesday night in the school. Judith Shrum was given an award for being the outstanding patrolman of the year; Judith Hawthorne and Paul Richard received safety patrol distinguished service awards and patrolmen certificates were presented to Joan Staley, Geraldine Barrick, Emma Geesey, Thelma Lapp, JoAnn Larkie, Thelma Heisey, David Greer and James Snyder.

The student with the highest scholastic report in each of the courses will be given an award at the second annual commencement exercises tonight in the school. These cash awards will be given by the Albano Drug Store to the highest in the academic course; The Mount Joy VFW Post to the highest in business; Martin Musser, to the highest in agriculture; Mount Joy Lions to the highest in industrial arts; Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's Club highest in Home Economics; and Mount Joy VFW Post to the highest in the general course.

Senior Awards Presented Today At Donegal High

Seniors awards were presented in a special assembly program this morning, James Pennell, West Main Street, was the recipient of three awards given. He received the Mount Joy VFW Citizenship award, the Rensselaer Alumni Mathematics award and the Danforth Foundation award.

Other awards and their winners are Sloan Science award, Asher Halbleib; Sumpman Instrumental Music award, Ronald Hawthorne, girl to receive the Mt. Joy VFW Citizenship award, Peggy Wolfe; Bausch & Lomb Science award, Louise Horning; girl to receive Danforth Foundation award, Dixie Bair; Lancaster Bar Assoc. Essay award, Julia Loewen; American Chemical Society certificate, Harold Krall.

Class Day Held

A special class day program was presented by the senior class Tuesday afternoon. During the program the class will be read and humorous gifts were presented to each of the graduating seniors.

RECEIVES DEGREE

H. Morrell Shields, Columbia Avenue, received his A. B. degree during the commencement exercises Monday morning, 10 a. m. at the Elizabethtown College. Mr. Shields has music as his major subject. Seventy-three were in the graduating class.

STATE PASSES BILL

Through the efforts of the late Clarence Schock for several years, a bill was finally passed in the state legislature exempting charity from the 15% tax on inheritance. The bill will be effective June 1, 1957. Organizations exempt include religious, charitable, scientific, literary & educational groups whose earnings are not paid to a private stockholder.

Physician On Call Sunday Dr. Newton Kendig