

Milk Is State's Biggest Product

With June Dairy Month just around a few corners, certainly a few kind words are in order for the dumb animals and shrewd and wise dairymen that make Pennsylvania one of the top dairying states today.

Unquestionably contemporary dairying embodies much more than merely staking a few cows at large in a field and the milking thereof daily.

Successful dairy farmers of the Keystone State have gone a long way from those days. Competition has forced the issue.

Dairying today on the whole is quite scientific — almost as exacting as many of the most efficient industries we have.

Breeding of stock is important. The selection of feed and the proper mixture of feeds with healthful ingredients is exacting and demanding.

Proper and hygienic care of stock is equally important. In some cases milk is not touched by the human hand from the time it leaves the cow until it reaches the city consumer.

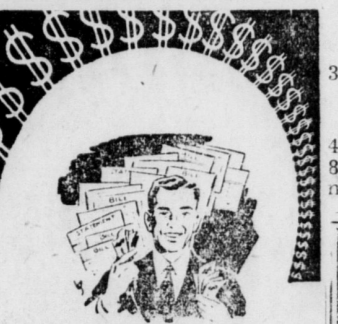

Dairying in Pennsylvania has indeed gone far — and perhaps just how far is illustrated by the fact that there is a cow for every ten residents of the Keystone State. Or if you'd rather look at it from the standpoint of a more liquid form there are produced 25 quarts for each of the state's 11 million residents.

Milk production today is the biggest single phase of Pennsylvania agriculture — and that's big no matter how you look at it.

Navy Battalion To Take Oath At Kutztown

A high point of the Seventh annual Pennsylvania Dutch Folk Festival at Kutztown will be the swearing in of the Second U. S. Naval Disteflink Battalion, now being recruited from the Dutch area of Pennsylvania.

In conjunction with the ceremony on the afternoon of July 7th, a mother of a Navy man or woman will be crowned "Mother Disteflink, 1956".

She will receive the title as a result of her ability to bake the best Shoo-fly pie. In addition to having the title conferred upon her will be the receipt of a Matchless Gas Range, donated by the Contest sponsor, the United Gas Improvement Company. The title will be determined by the baking contest which will start off in Lancaster County by mothers of any Navy man or woman, including the mothers of any of this year's Disteflink Battalion applicants, baking a Shoo-Fly pie in her own kitchen and having it delivered to the UGI demonstration kitchen in Lancaster between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. on Tuesday, June 26th. At about 3 p.m. the three top contestants will be announced. They will each receive a prize valued at about $15.00. On Thursday, June 26 at 10 a.m. these winners will again bake a Shoo-Fly pie at the UGI demonstration kitchen on Conestoga Street. The winner of this baking contest, to be judged, as the first by the Lancaster Navy Mothers Club, will then compete with the other winners, one each from Reading, Lancaster, Harrisburg and Allentown areas, in another contest. This to take place at Kutztown Festival at 1:30 p.m. on Friday, July 6th. The winner will be announced during the swearing in ceremonies of the Disteflink Battalion.

Any woman desiring application cards should contact the UGI Navy Mothers Club members, or any Navy Recruiter. Transportation to Kutztown will be furnished by the Navy Recruiting Service.

Most Farms Have Television

Harrisburg - PNS - Slightly better than four out of every ten farms in Pennsylvania today have television sets.

This was revealed by the Department of Agriculture following a survey of farm families of the Keystone State.

From the survey it was estimated that around forty percent of the 147,000 farms in Pennsylvania are T-V minded to the extent of having a television set in the home. (There are no known instances yet of any having been installed in the barn.)

In addition, the survey showed 95 per cent of all Pennsylvania farms now have electricity, 70 per cent have telephones, 33 per cent have running water, 64 per cent have bathrooms, and 57 per cent have heating systems.

Indications are that if the present trend continues along these lines, Pennsylvania's farms may eventually outdistance their urban brethren in many of the so-called "comforts of home."

The survey of Pennsylvania's farms was not limited to the luxury or semi-luxury side.

Gretna Players To Begin Rehearsal

Members of the Gretna Playhouse company will begin rehearsals Friday for the opening production of the season, "The Solid Gold Cadillac," Broadway comedy success which starred stage and screen actress Josephine Hull.

The play by Howard Teichmann and George S. Kaufman will be presented by Charles F. Coghlan and Gene P. Otto for a week's run starting June 7. Coghlan will mark his 12th year as director of the summer theater.

Aileen Poe will take Miss Hull's role, a small stockholder who manages to upset a huge corporation in comic fashion. Miss Poe also appeared at the playhouse in 1950 in "Harvey" when she played another part made famous by Miss Hull.

Among the cast rehearsing for the first show are Rachel Taylor, leading lady in 1954, who returns for her second season; Jackson Young, leading man last summer; Frank Hamerton, making his Gretna debut; Gene Galvin, beginning his fifth season at Mt. Gretna.
