They Still Serve!

The cultivation of a deep-seated reverence for people who have dedicated their lives to service of their fellow men, for those who labored, not for their own material gain, but for the rights and dignity of the individual, is truly one of the main objectives in the education of the citizen of tomorrow. Visits to shrines such as the Mt. Rushmore Memorial, pictured here, help to implant this reverence in the Youngster's heart and mind.

There are institutions, too, that minister to the unfortunate and the under-privileged. Many have been responsible for bringing upon the world's stage men of great character, who have in turn faithfully served mankind. The Church is such an institution. Attend the church of your choice regularly and take the children along. By so doing, tomorrow, you may bestow upon mankind a benefactor.

With the aim of fostering that which is good in family and community spirit this message is contributed to the religious life of the Community by the following:
