Veterans Given Hints On Writing To Administration

Four simple hints for veterans writing the Veterans Administration concerning their claims were given today by Bernard A. O'Hara, manager of the VA regional office in Wilkes-Barre.

- The hints are:
1. Don't write Washington—write your nearest VA regional office. The office serving veterans in the Wilkes-Barre area is located at 19 North Main Street, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
 2. Always give your full name and correct address. Make sure you notify VA of any change of address, and include your old and new address in the notification.
 3. If VA has given you a "C" number for your claim, be sure to list it in your letter. Otherwise, give your rank or rating and serial number.
 4. If you are attending an educational institution, or enrolled in on-the-job training, give the name and address of the training establishment.

Mr. O'Hara urges veterans to include this information in all letters, checks, or other mail sent to VA offices.

Mr. O'Hara said veterans who follow these hints, will receive faster replies and service, and will reduce the Government's cost of handling correspondence.
