Melissa Johnson, who lives in the Tingley apartment was seen doing her shopping, and wearing two different shoes — One gray, and the other brown — but they both turned red from the reflection of her face, when she discovered it.

"Clay" and "Ann" Newcomer, who live on Longenecker Road, received an invitation to a wedding, which took place over the weekend — After a lot of primping-up, they drove to the Neffsville Mennonite Church, found themselves a choice seat and proceeded to await the ceremony — looking through the crowd "Clay" didn't see a single person he knew, and when the affair got underway, which to them did not look like a wedding ceremony, they looked at each other in amazement — after a while "Clay" asked the person whom he was sitting next to, what was going on — the gent looked at him skeptically and told him it was a church dedication. They quietly vacated their seats and went outside the church and inquired the whereabouts of the wedding — after asking half the population of the town, they were informed it was at Landisville — so they jumped into their car, sped to the church, only to arrive there just as the ceremony was ended — then they drove back to Mt. Joy and attended the reception.

With the usual number of June weddings coming up in might be well to point out that marriage is made up of three rings; the engagement ring, the wedding ring and suffering.

Speaking of weddings, did you know that a marriage license is a paper that gives a woman the legal right to drive a man.

Also, when you marry you should let your wife know right away who is boss — there's no use kidding yourself.

Following another round in the battle of who can play golf the better, Park Neiss or Baxter Wells, the score pad tells the tale. At the finish of the most recent game played at the Overlook Golf course, Park's score was 94 and Baxter's was 101. — Not that the Chief was proud or anything; the score pad was "posted" at the LINCOLN RESTAURANT so everyone could view it! — Three guesses who sent this one in?

Who's the great Yankee fan in town who "sweat it out" over the weekend when the ex-champs lost two games Friday and Saturday to Cleveland. — By Saturday night, he had friends call on him waving banners and wearing black in mourning for the tragic event. — Sunday did it As he says it, "thank goodness they won Sunday!"

Someone goofed! — I feel certain the Sportsmen must have overlooked the prize catch that Charlie Feldt made at Perry County. Surely he deserves a prize of some kind. — Or the least they could do is give Walter one for holding the bucket.

Letters To Editor

Mt. Joy R. D. 1 June 8, 1956

Dear Sir: I would like to thank the Ladies Auxiliary of the Friendship Fire Company for the fine work they are doing for the teenagers of Mount Joy. We are the citizens of tomorrow and this organization is doing some very marvelous things for us in providing dances as a recreation. We have been trying for several years to get an organization interested in the teenagers of the community — now that we have that interest we are very grateful.

On behalf of the teenagers of Mount Joy I give my most sincere thanks for the many wonderful times they have planned for us.

KEAR — WALKER

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kear, 146 N. High St. announce the marriage of their daughter, Kay Louise to Donald Earl Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Walker of Danville R4, Pa.

A double ring ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Robert Strome at the St. Joseph's Church, May 26th at 10:30. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lahout.

The bride is employed at the Workers Loan Company and the groom at Thompson Products, Danville. The couple now reside at 639 N. Mill St., Danville.

GREIDER — NICHOL

In Elizabethtown Saturday afternoon, Miss Lilly Ann Greider, Mount Joy, and William C. Nichols of Carlisle were married. The Rev. William Hower officiated at the double ring ceremony in the First Church of God at three-thirty o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Greider, Mt. Joy and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nichol, Marian Center, Pa.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Susan Bertz at the organ and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Emmabelle Nichol sang the vocal numbers.

The wedding party consisted of Miss Elinore Griffith, Ephrata, maid of honor; Mrs. Jay Greider, Elizabethtown; Mrs. Robert Greider, Mt. Joy both sisters-in-law of the bride; Mrs. John Bowman, of Maytown, and Mrs. Wilmer Dick, Lancaster, bridesmaids. Carol Ann Greider, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Thomas W. Scott, East Lansing, Michigan, served as best man with ushers Robert Nichol, Dayton, Pa., brother of the bridegroom; Robert Himes, Rochester Mills, Pa., bridegroom's brother-in-law; Wesley Haer, Shippensburg; and Royden Kinter, Marian Center.

The bridal gown was fashioned by Chantilly lace accented by an Empire line of pleated silk. The wide oval neckline and brief sleeves were edged in scalloped lace and the bouffant skirt ended in a chapel train. A tiara of pearls held her illusion veil which was fingertip-length. Lace mitts to match her gown and a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid completed her bridal attire.

All the attendants wore waltz-length gowns of crys-talite featuring bateau necklines edged in hands which extended into back bows. Miss Griffiths wore yellow and the bridesmaids were in blue. Pearl-trimmed velvet circlets with face veils to match their gowns and clusters of Cavalier roses, surrounded by yellow roses and stephanotis completed their ensembles.

Mrs. Kreider wore Wedgewood blue with navy accessories and Mrs. Nichol chose beige silk with white accessories. Both had corsages of pink rosebuds.

After the reception in Hos-letter's Banquet Hall, Mount Joy, the couple left on a wedding trip through New England and Canada. They will reside in Carlisle where the bridegroom is stationed as assistant county agent in Cumberland County. Both are graduates of Pennsylvania State University. The bride has been on the faculty of East Donegal District Schools. Her husband served two years at a lieutenant in the Air Force.
