A "Mess" Can Be Averted

The puppy's curiosity got the best of him and he found himself in a tangle comparable to the web we weave about ourselves when we go our own way, doing as we please without restraint and without considering the consequences. We drift without plan or purpose, following the lines of least resistance and disregarding the experience of others. There is much that can be done to prepare ourselves for events, that unforeseen, could make of our lives a hopeless tangle. Keeping mentally alert, physically fit and spiritually awake are aids that we can call to use when needed. The Church will assist us in having a purpose in life and through it we may avoid many pitfalls that tend to entangle us. Regular attendance at a church of one's careful choosing will provide help in the above mentioned particulars.
