Rotary Scholar Speaks Here

Miss Elizabeth Swain, Rotary Foundation Fellow, addressed the Mount Joy club at its weekly meeting Tuesday. Miss Swain was introduced by her father, the Rev. William Swain. Miss Swain recently returned to the United States from a year's study at St. Andrews University, Scotland, under the Rotary Foundation. The speaker expressed a strong admiration for the British education system, which screens all its young people at the age of 11 or 12 through national examinations. Approximately 25 percent are classed for further academic studies, while the other 75 per cent are sent to technical schools on the basis of their particular aptitudes. Miss Swain said that while her travels had proved broadening, one finds the most broadening experience in people, not places, in sharing the lives of an ordinary family in another part of the world. While the British are fundamentally the same as the Americans, there are important differences, declared Miss Swain. Britain is still getting over the affects of World War II. Everything there is on a much smaller scale, and the average Englishman has little if any conception of the size of things in the United States, most of his conclusions being drawn from second rate American movies. Miss Swain said the biggest thing to come from her year abroad was a lesson in humility. "Until you've seen a bombed city, you don't realize how awful war can be." The speaker stated that she was impressed by the "oldness of everything" with the "past a living, vital thing". She commented on the "lack of wealth in every country. Every day we throw away things that millions of people all over the world would love to have." Miss Swain expressed appreciation for the kindness and generosity extended to her, and remarked that the Scots, contrary to the many stories told about them, give freely to any worthy cause, despite high taxes, low salaries and scarcity.

Girl Scout Leaders Plan Meeting Sept. 10

The first meeting of the Mount Joy-Florin Girl Scout Neighborhood will be held Monday, September 10, in the local Presbyterian church. Although meetings are scheduled for each first Monday of every other month, the meeting night is changed due to Labor Day. Highlights of the evening will be talks by the four Senior Girl Scouts who attended the first international round-up in Michigan in July. The four, Miss Barbara Becker, Miss Jackie Mariner, Miss Barbara Thome and Miss Nancy Diller, will speak on the round-up activities and show several articles that they "swapped". Mrs. Warren Foley, chairman, will be in charge of the meeting.

Physician On Call Sunday

Dr. John Gates

Larry Cupper and his prize winning collie took top honors at the summer dog show, an activity of the playground program.

Playground Directors Give Summary Of Activities

Playground directors issued a summary of the summer's playground activities. For the season a total registration of approximately 300 was realized with 130 registering at the elementary school playground and 170 at the borough park playground. Nights of special interest included a get-acquainted night with refreshments and games for the children with approximately 225 attending; Father-Son night and Mother-Daughter night, not so well attended as was hoped since approximately two dozen parents attended each night; two outdoor dances with 150 at each dance; bicycle decoration, 45 bikes entered in contest; band concert of Shawnee Band of Columbia, good turnout of parents and children with approximately 250 in attendance; dog show, 60 dogs entered in contest with prizes for each entry; awards night, turnout limited with approximately 20 parents attending at each playground. Special daily events included a picnic-hike to Gov. Dick Mt. Gretna with 175 children attending, considered very successful, lunch given and served by local JoyCeers; visit to Marietta playground attended by 130; visit to Columbia attended by 95; swimming at Twin Oaks Pool five times with an average of 130 attending; swimming at Hershey eight times with 110 different youngsters learning something about swimming. Points of interest included a girls' softball team at the borough park playground which won six games and lost one. Much interest was shown. Physical fitness tests were given at the school playground which proved interest and success resulted. The directors feel that every youngster participated in the making of at least one craft; most of them, more. Total bus trips taken during the summer were sixteen 8 to Hershey, 5 to Twin Oaks 1 to Columbia, 1 to Marietta and 1 to Gov. Dick. The daily attendance for the elementary school playgrounds was 70; for the borough park playground, 110. The directors, Marshall Gemberling, John Day, Mrs. Marshall Gemberling and Mrs. JoAnne Dunning Brooks feel that the park season was successful and wish to thank the parents and children for their cooperation and interest shown. "We, as a group, hoping to return next year, have many additional ideas, some of which have already materialized, for a more successful season. We hope to get more interest from the adults in the scheduling of our evening programs. We welcome any comments, pro or con, of ways to better and improve our playground program. We feel that the community, as a whole, can benefit from such a program and that it eventually will expand into a year round program for all ages."
