

MR. AND MRS. JOHN L. SCHWARTZ

Weddings

SMITH — SCHWARTZ

The marriage of Miss Shirley Ann Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larson D. Smith of Mount Joy, to Mr. John L. Schwartz, took place Saturday in Gerv Memorial Methodist Church, Wheaton, Ill. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Schwartz of Rochelle, Ill.

Dr. Allan Billman performed the double ring ceremony at 2:30 p.m. against a background of palms, candelabra white chrysanthemums and pink gladioli.

Mr. Smith escorted his daughter to the altar.

The lovely bride was gowned in sheer embroidered organza. The snugly fitted bodice had a scalloped neckline and tiny sheer sleeves, and the great embroidered ballerina length skirt drifted over several underskirts. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a coronet of hand embroidered organza and matching mits completed her attire.

The bride carried a hand-made handkerchief that belonged to her great-grandmother Crawford and the coin in her shoe was sent by a pen pal in Scotland. Her cascade bouquet of white sweetheart roses with stephanotis was centered with a white orchid. She wore a pearl necklace gift of the groom.

Miss Mary Smith of Mount Joy was her sister's maid of honor. Miss Doreen Griffiths of Council Bluffs, Ia., a college roommate and Miss Mary Reuter of Wheaton, a life-long friend, served as bridesmaids. The attendants wore ballerina length gowns of pink chiffon fashioned with lovely pleated off-shoulder necklines of tulle and pink satin cummerbunds. Their flowered headbands matched the cascade bouquets of sweetheart roses with snowflake.

John Rhoer, of Northbrook Illinois, the groom's college roommate, was best man. Ushers were Thomas L. Hav of Kewanee, Ill. and Kenneth Larson of Batavia, Ill.

The bride's brother, David Smith and her cousin, Joel Smith, were candle-lighters. David Schwartz of Rochelle, brother of the groom, was cameraman.

Mrs. Smith wore a cornflower blue dress of silk organza with white accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mother of the groom chose a navy blue sheer with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

ing accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Ruth Capps sang "Walk Hand in Hand," "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the organ by Philip Thieman.

Mrs. Robert M. Smith of Glen Ellyn, Ill., aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake at the reception in Wesley hall which followed the ceremony. Two college friends, Miss Elizabeth Teising, Chicago, and Miss Paula Swanson of Elmhurst, were in charge of the gift and guest books, and Miss Judith Elstrom of Wheaton served punch.

The newlyweds left for a honeymoon trip after the reception and will be at home after Sept. 1 at 600 College Blvd. Mount Vernon, Ia.

The new Mrs. Schwartz was raised in Wheaton and attended Wheaton Community high school. She graduated from Mount Joy high school and attended Cornell college. Her husband is a graduate of Rochelle high school and is entering his senior year at Cornell college, Mount Vernon, Ia., where he is a member of the OWL social group.

The marriage of Miss Vivian Elizabeth Metzler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian B. Metzler, Donegal Springs Road, Mount Joy, to Frederick Charles Bauder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Bauder, Elizabethtown R2, took place yesterday Sunday at 2 p. m. in Trinity Lutheran Church, Mount Joy, with the Rev. W. L. Koder officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by her sister, Miss Shirley Ann Metzler, as maid of honor.

Jay Melvin Steinruck, Elizabethtown R2, served as best man. Ushers were Carl Bauder, brother of the bridegroom; and Larry Heistand, Salunga.

The bride's gown of Chantilly lace over satin was designed with fitted bodice, bateau neckline, long sleeves and full skirt terminating in a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was attached to a small open-crown lace cap. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink asters.

Her attendant wore a light blue crystaletta and not over tuffed gown with off-shoulder neckline and waltz length skirt. She wore a matching blue lace cap and carried white carnations and yellow pompons.

Miss Beulah Smith played the wedding music. A reception was held at the bride's home, where the couple will reside after a wedding trip. The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress, with navy and white accessories and a corsage of pink flowers. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with beige accessories and a corsage of yellow flowers.

The bride was graduated from the Lancaster General Hospital School of Nursing and is on duty at the hospital. The bridegroom attended Lebanon Valley College and now is employed by the National U. S. Radiator Corp. at Middletown.

MRS. THOMAS G. SAYLOR

Miss Marjorie Jane Herr, 228 S. Market St., Elizabethtown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Calvin Herr, of Florin, became the bride of Thomas G. Saylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Saylor, 100 N. Findlay St., York, at 2 p. m. Saturday in St. Marks E. U. B. Church, Mt. Joy.

The Rev. Charles Wolfe, Glosbrenner E.U.B. Church, Florin, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Doris Kautz, Elizabethtown, was maid of honor. Dennis M. Mahoney, York, served as best man. Mrs. Grace Hawthorne, aunt of the bride, was organist.

The bride wore a cocktail length dress of white Chantilly lace over taffeta and a matching lace jacket. Her shoulder length veil fell from its nylon tucked headpiece edged with seed pearls and lace. She wore short, white nylon gloves and carried two orchids on a Bible.

The maid of honor wore a similar dress in light blue Chantilly lace. Her headpiece was of light blue Chantilly lace, matching her dress, and she carried two blue orchids.

The bride's mother chose Navy blue crepe with pink satin binding and accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore Navy blue sheer dress with Navy lace and white accessories and a red rosebud corsage.

The bride was graduated from Mount Joy High School and attended Iowa Falls Junior College. She is employed in the Analytical Department of Wyeth Laboratories, Marietta.

The bridegroom was graduated from William Penn Senior High School, York and Pennsylvania State University in 1955 with a bachelor of arts degree in journalism. He is a member of Pi Kappa Phi, social fraternity, and Sigma Delta Chi and is on the staff of the Harrisburg Patriot News.

SEEKS LIMITED TRUCK TRAFFIC FOR HIGHWAY SAFETY

Harrisburg - The Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association is again striving to increase safety on the State's highways over a holiday period by asking truck users across the State to restrict truck transportation to emergency service and essentials over the Labor Day holiday. The Association seeks to reduce highway congestion and thus increase safety by requesting its members throughout Pennsylvania's 67 counties to restrict movement of goods to essential commodities and emergency shipments during the peak traffic period. In addition to these annual pleas for safer holidays, PMTA is actively engaged in a program in the public interest against truck speed, noise and smoke.
