Landisville - Salunga

Landisville - Salunga—The first of a series of 4 block shoots will be held Saturday, Sept. 29 at the Landisville Fire Company picnic grounds beginning at 1:00 p. m. The events are being sponsored by the fire company. Twelve gauge shotguns only will be permitted, and shells will be furnished. Prizes will be turkeys & hams. Similar shoots will be held on each of the three following Saturdays: October 6, 13, and 20.

It was also announced by the officials of the Landisville Fire Company that a "White Elephant" auction will be held on Monday, Oct. 15, at Morrison's Auction in Landisville. Persons wishing to donate salable goods of any type or conditions are requested to contact any member of the fire company prior to the date of the auction. Merchandise will be picked up at homes by fire company members.

Proceeds from the block shoots and auction will be put into a fund for the purchase of a new fire engine for the community. Fire Chief Elwood Miller reports.

Rev. Richwine Speaks To Florin Lions

The Rev. Harry Richwine, pastor of the Salem Lutheran Church, Lebanon, was the guest speaker at the Monday night meeting of the Florin Lions Club at the Clearview Diner. Rev. Richwine discussed the value of service clubs to the community.

The car wash which was held last Saturday was reported a financial success. Plans were made for some of the members to attend the fall rally to be held at Ephrata Monday, October 8. Although several members will attend, the regular meeting will also be held that night at the diner.

For the Monday night meeting, the group entertained members of the zone A cabinet which includes the Lions from the Florin group, Mount Joy, Elizabethtown, Manheim and Litzitz. Arthur Sprecher, zone chairman, was in charge of the zone meeting held following the regular meeting.

Last night Clarence Hollinger, president, and Benjamin Staley escorted Miss Carol Gander in the Ephrata Fair parade. Miss Gander is the club's candidate for Miss Ephrata Fair. Mr. Hollinger was in charge of the meeting.

Disc Dope

The Six Teens who have just finished taking "A Casual Look" have come out with a brand new one, "Afar Into The Night."

The fat man himself - Fats Domino has come out with a brand new rendition of an old favorite, "Blueberry Hill" It's backed by "Honey Child" and is fast becoming popular among the teenagers.

"You'll Never Never Know" the Platters' brand new disc backed by "It Isn't Right" already is one of the fastest selling records out. Just for the books, everyone of their records has sold over a million copies.

Jim Love, a newcomer in the recording business has come out with a big smash, "Green Door."

The Rover Boys of "Graduation Day" fame have a new hit on their hands, "From a School Ring To a Wedding Ring." It's backed by "Young Love." Both sides are popular with both young and old.

Kay Starr's record of "The Things I've Never Had" is already popular and is fast gaining added prizes.

"Just Walking In The Rain" recorded by Johnnie Ray, is really breaking up the country. It's a big switch from sobs and moans we're used to hearing from Johnnie.

Ginny Gibson's record of "The Miracle of Love" is fast catching hold of record collectors everywhere.

That's about all for this week. Watch for some new picks of record hits next week.
