

Community Exhibit Opens Next Wednesday

The Mount Joy

BULLETIN

FIFTY-SIXTH YEAR, NO. 16 MOUNT JOY, PA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1956 SEVEN CENTS PER COPY

Main Events For Community Exhibit

- October 10, Wednesday—1 p.m. - Judging.
- 7 p.m.—Quoit pitching contest begins
- 8 p.m.—Program by the Lebanon County Dutch Band.
- October 11, Thursday—10 a.m. - Livestock judging (morning and afternoon)
- 7 p.m.—Quoit pitching contest continues.
- 8 p.m.—Corn Queen contest.
- October 12 Friday—1 p.m. - Plowing contest on the Harold Endslow farm.
- 7 p.m.—Quoit pitching finals.
- 8 p.m. Donegal High School Band Concert.
- 8 p.m.—4-H Pig Sale.
- October 13, Saturday—12:30 p.m. - Tractor driving contest at the Mount Joy Farmers' Co-op.
- 8 p.m.—Talent Show.
- October 17, Wednesday - Banquet at Hostetter's Pavilion.

Mount Joy Plans For 35th Show

Mount Joy's thirty-fifth annual community exhibit opens next Wednesday for four days. Since a parade could not be held the opening nite due to the conditions of the borough streets through the installation of the sewage system, The Lebanon County Dutch band will present a varied program at the fair grounds. This band will present a program featuring German music, dancing routines and special musical groups.

Thursday's highlights will be livestock judging and the crowning of the 1956 Corn Queen. Farm Women No. 8 are in charge of the program and contest. Invitations have been issued to four high schools and four 4-H Clubs to enter contestants in the contest.

One of Friday's attractions is of county-wide importance since the plowing contest will determine the plowing champion of the county. This winner will represent Lancaster County at the state contest at the Penna. State University in 1957. Cash prizes include $30 to the first place winner; $25 to the second; $20, third; $15, fourth; $10, fifth and seven $5.00 prizes. A rain date has been named for Friday, Oct. 19. Applications should be received by William Risser, chairman, by Friday, Oct. 5.

Saturday's tractor driving contest will begin at 12:30 p.m. at the Mount Joy Farmers Co-op under the chairmanship of John Weidman. The contest, open to drivers of any age, offers prizes of $10; $7.50; and $5.

The first time this year, the quoit pitching contest will be held at the fair grounds in a tent erected for the contest. The entrance fee is 50c per man and must be paid by Wednesday, Oct. 10. Entries will be received by William H. Fackler, Marietta Avenue and Earl Eshleman, S. Barbara St. Preliminary games will be played Wednesday and Thursday with the finals scheduled for Friday night.

The Wednesday following the farm show activities the public banquet will be held at the Hostetter Pavilion on Oct. 17, 6:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend this affair. Elmer Hoover, professor at Elizabethtown College, will be the guest speaker. Tickets will be on sale during the fair and can be purchased at the Bulletin or in charge S. A. Horton and Jos. Shaeffer.

Prizes will also be awarded for exhibits of corn, potatoes, small grain and nuts, vegetables, eggs, fruit, dried foods and jellies, honey, canned foods, baked goods, sewing, flowers, school work, 4-H Club sewing, baking, 4-H corn club, 4-H tobacco club, 4-H pig club, 4-H baby beef.

Officers of the fair are: Curvin H. Martin, president; Harold Endslow, vice president; Joseph Shaeffer, secretary; S. A. Horton, treasurer; Frank Weidman, William Risser and Paris Gruber, assistant superintendents.

H. Morrell Shields, who is in charge of the Saturday night talent show, announces that he is still receiving applications for the affair. Interested persons of all ages are asked to contact Mr. Shields giving their names, addresses, what the act will be, how long they have been doing the activity, and whether or not they will need special accompanying music.

Cash prizes will be awarded to the top winners of the show. The competition is open to anyone in the area.

Officers of the fair are: Curvin H. Martin, president; Harold Endslow, vice president; Joseph Shaeffer, secretary; S. A. Horton, treasurer; Frank Weidman, William Risser and Paris Gruber, assistant superintendents.

H. Morrell Shields, who is in charge of the Saturday night talent show, announces that he is still receiving applications for the affair. Interested persons of all ages are asked to contact Mr. Shields giving their names, addresses, what the act will be, how long they have been doing the activity, and whether or not they will need special accompanying music.

Cash prizes will be awarded to the top winners of the show. The competition is open to anyone in the area.

Officers of the fair are: Curvin H. Martin, president; Harold Endslow, vice president; Joseph Shaeffer, secretary; S. A. Horton, treasurer; Frank Weidman, William Risser and Paris Gruber, assistant superintendents.

H. Morrell Shields, who is in charge of the Saturday night talent show, announces that he is still receiving applications for the affair. Interested persons of all ages are asked to contact Mr. Shields giving their names, addresses, what the act will be, how long they have been doing the activity, and whether or not they will need special accompanying music.

Cash prizes will be awarded to the top winners of the show. The competition is open to anyone in the area.

Officers of the fair are: Curvin H. Martin, president; Harold Endslow, vice president; Joseph Shaeffer, secretary; S. A. Horton, treasurer; Frank Weidman, William Risser and Paris Gruber, assistant superintendents.

Payments Completed On Meters

Borough council made the final payments to the borough's parking meter account with the Duncan Meter Company. The first meters were installed in June of 1952 and since then were paid off on a 50% basis; 50% to the company and 50 percent to the borough.

In other business a motion was passed to have an ordinance prepared providing two hour parking on both sides of East Main Street from Jacob Street to Park Avenue from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily except Sundays. This was done to eliminate a parking problem in this area.

Michael Good, policeman, was named to the Board of Health for a five year term. The street committee was authorized to study Lefever Road and determine what can be done to improve it.

Fire chief Ray Myers reported seven calls answered during the month of September. In Park Neiss' chief of police report, he reported the following arrests: reckless driving, 1; ignoring red traffic signal, 1; improper passing, 2; unnecessary noise, 1; driving without lights, 1; failure to sign operator's license, 1; drunken driving, 1; and two accidents investigated.

Letters were authorized to be sent to several borough residents asking them to clean debris that is both a fire hazard and health hazard to the community.

Monday was the designated date for the opening of bids for new radiator traps in the firehouse. Since no bids were received the body turned the matter again over to the property committee for study.

Sophomore Heads Donegal Majorettes

Miss Judy Frey, Columbia Ave., has been named head of the majorettes of the Donegal High School band. Miss Frey, has charge of the band in parading and football game exhibitions. Other members of the new squad are: Patricia Mumper, junior; Patricia Hamby, Joan Koser, Sandra Wittle, Janet McKain, Karen Way, Sandra Lockes, sophomores; Mary Smith and Carolyn Showalter, banner carriers; Loreta Scholl and Patricia Phillips, color guard.

NAMED TO COMMITTEE

In District 1 of the Lancaster County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, H. S. Greiner, Manheim R3, was named first alternate and Walter Gish, Mount Joy R2, second alternate by a toss of a coin. Daniel Forry, Columbia R1, was chosen vice chairman and Harold B. Endslow, Manheim R1, regular member in District 2.

The county committee is a policy making body charged with administering federal farm programs in crop acreage controls, marketing quotas and conservation practices including the controversial Soil Bank Program at the local level.

To Report New Families Call MJ 3-3083

GUARDING YOUNGSTERS' SAFETY

Pictured above is the Mount Joy Borough Elementary Safety Patrol members. The group helps small children to and from school each day and holds weekly meetings. At these weekly meetings, one patrolman is chosen to wear a gold badge for one week for performing the most outstanding feat of the week. Pictured above are Jeffrey Meckley, lieutenant; Mimi O'Connor, captain and Charles Heaps, principal.

From left to right in the front row are—Mary Ellen Matheses, Jean Hartman, Cora McCowin, Lora Lee Foley, Fern Wolgemuth, Sandra Wolgemuth, Joan Landvater, Barbara McGinley and Kathleen Dolan. Second row, left to right—Lillian Good, Mary Max, Lois Anderson, Randy Grove, Robert Wolgemuth, Helen Rutt, Cleo Brandt, Sharen Copenhaver. Third row, left to right—Robert Stark, Dennis Beamerderfer, Dennis Eschler, Thomas Meckley, Kenneth Nauman, Barbara Olson, Sally Ulrich, and Sharon Goodhart. Fourth row—Dean Brenner, Leslie Leukway, Robert Mariner, Georgianne Schneider, Sherryl Brown, Sandra Kretzing. Back Row—Richard Nornhold, Robert Eshleman, John Gates, Dorcas Becker, Ronald Gamber and William Charles.

Plans Completed For Ingathering

Plans were completed for the annual ingathering of the Mt. Joy branch of the needlework Guild of America at a recent meeting of the directors. Twenty-two directors attended the meeting held at the home of the president, Mrs. Simeon Horton.

The ingathering will be held Tuesday, Oct. 23, in the Mount Joy Methodist church. Directors are asked to bring their garments to the church between 9 and 11 a.m. The directors' meeting will be held at 2 p.m. in the church.

All members are invited to see the garments and attend a tea at 2:30 p.m. Persons in the area who contribute to the two garments to the group are members of the branch. The directors and officers and household linen will be affiliation with the Red Cross urge the members to see the collected and distributed this such aid can be extended garments and attend the tea, fall by the 470 Branches of speedily and directly.

Three new directors were During the week of Oct. 1 named, Mrs. Raymond Gil-Amerca. The sets of "Twins" - 6, the local Branch is en- Mrs. Robert Beaman- will go together, so that each listing new members. Persons derfer and Mrs. Franklin recipient will have "one to may learn more about men- Zink, October 1 - 8 has been wear, and one to wash". bership from the Branch designated as National Mem- Since 1885, more than 67- President in Mount Joy, Mrs. 000,000 garments have been Simeon Horton at Mount Joy bership Week. collected and distributed thru phone 3-4094, or the Secre- tary: Mrs. Sam Balsbaugh at Mount Joy 3-8311.

The investigating commit- tee reported a special need the Needlework Guild to of garments for boys and fortunate people, regardless of age, race or creed. At Remember, membership re- eight and ten years old. It times when catastrophes have quires nothing more than 2 was also announced that sev- visited in parts of our coun- garments a year.

ATTEND BANKERS' MEETING IN LITITZ

Eleven directors and employees of the local banks attended the Lancaster County Bankers' Association meeting last Thursday at the General Sutter Hotel, Lititz. A talk on "The American Way of Life" was given by Prof. Arthur H. Reede, professor of economics at Pennsylvania State University.

COMMUNITY AMBULANCE ANSWERS 2 CALLS

Two calls were answered last week by the local community ambulance. Thursday September 27, William Laughman was taken to the Lancaster General Hospital by drivers Robert Williams and John Myers.

PLAN SCOUT EVENTS

Plans were made to sponsor a food stand at the local community exhibit at a parents' meeting of the local Boy Scout troop No. 39. The group also decided to conduct a scrap drive sometime in October and to hold another parents' meeting either this month or in November.

WRITES SCHOOL SONG

Eugene Tritch, new music instructor at Donegal High School, wrote the words and music to the "fight song" which is being used at school football games this season.

ORDERS BEING TAKEN

Orders are being taken for the Donegal High School yearbook, the "Emerald". Contrary to other years, the book will not be issued during the month of May. Since it will contain graduation events, the book will be issued in August. A dance will be held in August at which time the yearbooks will be released to the students.

GREYER LEGHORNS 3RD IN NATIONAL TEST

The pen of birds entered by Greider Leghorn Farms, Mount Joy R1, winner of the Pennsylvania Official Egg Laying Test, ranked third nationally.

ROTARIANS HEAR TALK ON AIR REFUELING

The Mount Joy Rotary Club at its Tuesday meeting heard an interesting talk on "Aerial Refueling". Speaker was John C. Howett, who formerly served with the Strategic Air Command in Korea. Mr. Howett is district manager for the New England Life Insurance Company.

BAND CLUB MAKES MEMBERSHIP PLANS

Plans were completed at the Monday night meeting of the Donegal High School Band Club to contact all parents of band members. The aim of the group is to have all parents of band members to become members of the band club.

The next meeting is scheduled for the first Monday in November.

AWARDED PRIZES

Miss Joan Schneider was awarded the wrist watch awarded during the openhouse sale at Sloan's Pharmacy last weekend and Mrs. Jacob Shaeffer was awarded a years supply of vitamins.

SIX CLINICS HELD DURING SEPTEMBER

There were 15 new patients in the six diagnostic orthopedic clinics during September at the Lancaster County Society for Crippled Children. A total of 87 patients were examined. Two operations were performed. The nurse, occupational and physical therapist made 221 visits to crippled children and adults during the month. Braces and shoes were carefully inspected to see that they were not outgrown or in need of repair. Exercises as prescribed by the orthopedic surgeons and family physicians were taught to the patients as well as the functional activities of daily living.

ARRIVES HOME

Ross Neiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Park Neiss, East Main Street, arrived home Saturday following a three year, five month enlistment in the U. S. Army. Cpl. Neiss was discharged from Fort Hamilton, N. Y.

CALLS TO FIRE

Mount Joy Friendship Fire Company were called Saturday evening to the home of Christ Herr, Mount Joy R1; the Marietta pike. Mrs. U. S. Army. Cpl. Neiss was discharged from Fort Hamilton, N. Y.

OPENS MEAT MARKET

Lester M. Grove has opened the Grove's Meat Market just west of Florin along the main highway. Mr. Grove is selling his retail meats with special prices being given on quarters and halves of beef.

Mr. Myers Entertains Scouts

Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts of Mount Joy were treated to a doggie roast last Monday by Earl Myers in appreciation for the assistance the boys gave him prior to his attendance at the school to learn to live with a seeing eye dog.

The council fire was lighted with lint and steel by Harold Etsell, Jr. The opening ceremonies included the Bible reading by Richard Becker; pledge of allegiance by Jerry Buchenauer; Scout oath and laws, John Gates; Explorer citizenship pledge, Robert Buchenauer. A Court of Honor was held by Scoutmaster Harold Etsell at which time David Brandt received his tenderfoot badge; Gerald Alteman, second class badge; Richard Becker and Lewis Hart, swimming merit badges. Harold Etsell, Jr. received his life saving badge. Explorer advisor Charles Buchenauer presented merit badges to Terry Schofield, Lewis Gable and Bernell Heisey.

Following songs and stunts Mr. Myers gave a talk on the schooling he received to receive his dog, Bonnie, his dog, also made her appearance at the affair which was held near the Cove. Following the roast, the evening was climaxed with taps played by Harold Etsell, Jr.

LOCAL CHIROPRACTORS TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Two local Doctors of Chiropractic will attend the annual Pennsylvania Chiropractic Society convention Oct. 5, 6, and 7 in Reading. They are: Drs. Amos W. Leonard, Coleman H. Stites, Mt. Joy.

REPUBLICANS TO CHOOSE A "Miss Ike Girl"

Final plans for the county-wide program to select "Miss Ike Girl" were completed on Monday as eight individual contests were planned. "Miss Ike Girl" of Lancaster will reign over the "Eisenhower Band Rally" scheduled for Lancaster County Oct. 24. Eight separate "Ike Girl" contests were listed by the local committee, each to accompany an "Ike" rally at one point in the county. Basic qualifications for a "Miss Ike Girl" are a winning smile and a desire to ride on the Eisenhower band wagon. Entry blanks for those contests are now available through the eight county zone chairman through the Lancaster newspapers and other rally points throughout the area. This program is sponsored by the Young Republicans organization and a committee headed by Miss Peggy Steinman.

AMMENT GARAGE UNDERGOING REMODELING

Remodeling is being conducted at the Eli Ament garage, corner of Delta and Henry Streets. The former garage has been increased to include the former Fitzkee residence located east of the building on Henry Street. The house has been joined with the garage and will include two office rooms with the remainder of the house being used for the parts department.

REPUBLICANS PLAN SOLICITATION DRIVE

East ward Republican committee, Kenneth Gainer, and west ward Republican committee, Richard Div. Gillham, announced that the 1956 round-up has started. Republican voters will be contacted for solicitation for the Lancaster County Republican financial committee.

TEEN DANCE SATURDAY, OCT. 6

Due to the farm show which will be taking place next week end, the regularly scheduled teen dance will be moved up a week.

REPUBLICANS PLAN SOLICITATION DRIVE

East ward Republican committee, Kenneth Gainer, and west ward Republican committee, Richard Div. Gillham, announced that the 1956 round-up has started. Republican voters will be contacted for solicitation for the Lancaster County Republican financial committee.

PHYSICIAN ON CALL SUNDAY

Dr. Newton Kendig

PHYSICIAN ON CALL SUNDAY

Dr. Newton Kendig