High Point Man In Racing

Paul Gingrich, East Main Street, has been named 'high point man' for Pennsylvania by the NASCAR (National Association of Stock Car Racing). Mr. Gingrich owns and is the mechanic for two racing autos. His Sportsman Ford, driven by James Smith of Ridley Park, received the most points of any racing auto in the state at the close of the regular racing season in September.

Now Mr. Gingrich will be racing his auto in championship races. Winning a race at Lincoln entitled the local man to enter into competition at Langhorne October 14. Future plans for Mr. Gingrich and his autos will be entering the Daytona, Florida, races in February when racing of all type automobiles will be held on the sands.
