Landisville - Salunga

Landisville - Salunga - Hempfield High School today (Thursday, Nov. 8) is the site of the Annual Lancaster County Convention of Student Councils. Nineteen schools are represented at the student convocation, it has been announced by Miss Joan Cluck, president of the Hempfield High School Student Council, the host group.

After registration at 1:30 today, a general assembly was held in the high school auditorium. The Rev. N. L. Leer, pastor of the church, discussed the implications of the invocation, and a well-known address by Leroy M. Nissley, principal of the Landisville school.

The assembly of students were entertained by the Hempfield High School band under the direction of Russell P. Getz. The band concert included a saxophone solo by Barbara Nolt. A tap dance routine by Judy Weller, and a pantomime of "Eloise" by Sandra Henderson.

The students then broke into four discussion groups concerning problems which confront student councils. Discussion leaders were Larry Loose, Ephraim; Billie Wolf, Edward Hand; Judy Anderson, Manheim Twp.; and Barbara Hackman, of Hempfield.

Following a report on these topics, the assembled student council representatives were entertained by a one-act play by the 8th grade class of Hempfield. "Where's That Report Card?" directed by Miss Grace Nolt of the Hempfield faculty. Pat Gingrich and Sylvia Eshleman played an organ-piano duet.

A banquet in the Hempfield cafeteria will feature this evening's program at 5:30 p. m. with Doctor Paul Z. Rummel, of the Millersville State Teachers College faculty, delivering the main address of the convention. Arthur A. Hackman, supervising principal of the Hempfield School District, will welcome the group.

Following the banquet, a dance is scheduled in the school gymnasium, with the Hempfield dance band providing the music. Ushers and waiters and waitresses, hosts and hostesses for the day-long session were provided by the Key Club and Future Homemakers of America Club at the Landisville school.

Landisville - Salunga - Approximately forty members of the Landisville Lions Club heard a lecture on color television last Monday night at a meeting of the club at the Landisville Fire Hall.

Speaker for the occasion was Donald G. Garvin, administrative official of the Landisville - Salunga - A capacity 254 people attended a special Rally Day service at the Zion Lutheran Church in Landisville, last Sunday morning when Doctor G. Elson Ruff, editor of the "Lutheran", a weekly religious magazine, delivered an address to the congregation.

A special offering for the debt on the new Parish building netted $1,325, it was announced by Earl Meisenbelter, Sunday School superintendent, which was over the $1,000 goal previously set for the rally service.

Special music was presented by the senior choir and the newly-formed Sunday School orchestra, which made their first performance at the

To Reorganize Gym Club For Third Season

The Monday Night Gym Club will reorganize for its third consecutive season on Monday, November 19, and will continue each Monday evening throughout the winter months. Sessions start at 7:30 p. m. and continue until 10:30 p. m. in the Mount Joy Grade School gymnasium.

The program is designed to meet the recreational needs of all ages from 18 to 80 and is open to all male citizens of Mount Joy and vicinity. Each evening the program is divided into several parts, starting with a period of calisthenics and followed by a period of volleyball and usually a session of basketball.

The entire program is under the capable supervision of a professional director and is planned to insure a safe and enjoyable program for all. As in former years, the program again is sponsored
