as soloists; "The Darkness is Falling, by a special group of sixth graders with Sally Ann Ulrich as soloist; "O Christmas Tree" by 4, 5 and 6; "Who's Knocking There" with John Gates as the innkeeper; Lora Lee Foley as Mary and Robert Gessler as Joseph; "Shepherds Up!", 4, 5 and 6; "The Christmas Nightingale", grade 5; "Let Our Gladness Know No End", 4, 5 and 6; "Silent Night", 4, 5 and 6 with Thomas Meckley as Joseph Mohr and Robert Wolgemuth as Franz Gruber.

Throughout the story, twelve sixth graders will be the descant singers. They are Lora Lee Foley, Helen Rutt, Joan Landvater, Mimi O'Connor.

Rotary Given Short Course
 A 30-minute course in optometry was given Mount Joy Rotarians Tuesday at their weekly luncheon meeting held at Hostetter's.

The course was given by Dr. John H. Stauffer, who gave his fellow clubmen a "classification" talk. Using diagrams and formulas he outlined some of the common eye abnormalities and indicated their cures by use of lenses.

Some of the common misconceptions concerning eyes and fitting of glasses were discussed, including the use of contact lenses, "eye banks" and others.

The program was arranged by vice-president Ray N. Wiley and the meeting was in charge of president Mike Pricio.

This year, instead of having an exchange of gifts among the members as in the past, each man will contribute cash and some gift of a lasting nature will be given the Mount Joy Messiah children's home.

table with a neat little cupcake, topped with a lighted candle. Following a burst of laughter, song broke out and the restaurant rang with "Happy Birthday, Jay."

Here's a thrifty note — In October of 1956, for the first time in two years, repayment of automobile indebtedness exceeded the new borrowing for the purchase of cars.

This column will NOT make a practice of publishing submitted poems but this one, written by a sightless girl, we do use at this season of the year:

A Babe in a manger,
 A star in the sky,
 The song of a mother,
 As shepherds stand by.

The birth of the Christ Child,
 And angles above
 Who sing out their song
 Of joy and love.

The wise men who traveled
 From very far
 And followed the strange and
 Brilliant star;

They brought with them gifts,
 These wise men three,
 The first Christmas gifts
 Ever to be.

The joy of just living,
 The right to be free,
 It's Peace, That's what Christmas
 Means to me.
