JOYCEES MAKE

Joycees made plans to sponsor a card party in the near future at the Tuesday night meeting of the group. They also made plans to have a special event at the February meeting of the group and to plan a combined event for both the Joycees and the Jaycees.

Mrs. Charles Drace, chairman of the "Welcome to Mt. Joy" committee, announced that five families were visited within the past 2 months. The committee reported that any families moving into the borough outside a ten mile radius will be visited by the committee and will be welcomed into the town with gifts and certificates from the cooperating merchants.

MOVES TO CALIFORNIA

Mrs. V. H. Kupferer, Jr., widow of Bud Kupferer, who was graduated from Mt. Joy high school in 1945, and their daughter, Robin Ann have moved to El Cerrito, Calif. Mrs. Kupferer was graduated from the school of Science at Purdue University last June. She is a chemist at the Government Western Utilization Research Laboratories in Albany, Calif.

MRS. STRICKLER IS NINETY-TWO

Mrs. Mary Strickler observed her 92nd birthday last Friday. Mrs. Strickler, who is now residing with a son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. Frank D. Witmer, 33 West Main St., is in good health but because of a fall last spring, she needs the aid of a walker. She is the widow of William Strickler who died in 1944. She and her late husband formerly operated a farm south of Mount Joy for sixty-two years.

HOMEMAKERS MEET AT HERSHEY HOME

Fifteen members attended a meeting of the Mount Joy Homemakers last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Jno. Hershey, Mount Joy R2. Miss Ruth Kimble, county home economist, gave instructions on measurements for patterns in clothing construction. The next meeting of the group will be January 23 at the home of Mrs. Jay Barnhart, 47 Detwiler Avenue.

GIVE $247

The Farm Women Society of Lancaster county contributed a total of $247 to the 1956 United Community Campaign, it has been reported by the campaign office. Sixteen societies presented the United Drive for the 22 Red Feather Services of the Community Chest and the Red Cross with contributions ranging from five to thirty-five dollars.

PLAN CARD PARTY

Plans were made at the January meeting of the Wal-er S. Ebersole Post 185 American Legion Auxiliary to sponsor a card party Monday evening, February 25. The group decided to sell tickets prior to the event.

Landisville - Salunga

About 150 persons attended a meeting of the Landisville Elementary School Parent-Teachers Association last Monday night at the Landisville Elementary School building.

Principal speaker for the event was Mr. Furman F. Bailey, assistant county superintendent of schools. Mr. Bailey's topic was, "Check-listing an Efficient P.T.A." Russell P. Getz, head of the Music Department at Hempfield High School, spoke to the assembly on the advantages of young people beginning the study of instrumental music and the proper selection of a suitable musical instrument for each beginner.

In a business meeting conducted by Rev. Ernest P. Leer, president of the P.T.A. group at Landisville, plans were discussed to hold a Spring Frolic festival with a tentative May date set.

The Hempfield High School wrestling team, in its first season of interscholastic varsity competition, tasted defeat for the third time in as many meets last Thursday night in the Landisville schools' spacious new gymnasium. Handing the Black Knights their third straight loss was Columbia high prayer service at the Salunga school. The Crimson Tide, coached by Tom Hondras, is undefeated in District #3 competition, and gave the Hempfield grapplers a 50 to 0 wallowing.

Most impressive bouts included Columbia's Bob Hartman pinning Syd Kieffer in 55 seconds, and Jim Smith, Columbia, pinning Bob Eisenger in the 185 pound class in 18 seconds.

The Hempfield team, coached by Don Bissing, will meet the McCaskey High grapplers of Lancaster today at 4:00, an afternoon meet at Lancaster. On January 24, they will journey to Reading for a meet with the Red Knights of Reading slated to begin at 7:00 p.m.

The Couples Club of the Zion Lutheran Church, Landisville, voted to sponsor a Hungarian refugee in the community. A committee, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Meisenhelter, was appointed to investigate job opportunities and housing. According to policies set up by the government, a sponsoring group for a refugee must have adequate housing and a job awaiting him, and provide funds for transportation to the location. The action by the church social group was taken at a meeting of the club last Sunday night prior to the business meeting. The group attended the ga Church of the Brethren and the Rev. Dr. Bela Vassady of the E. & R. Theological Seminary, Lancaster and formerly of Hungary, American people must not take things for granted," he said.

Following the meeting, members of the club were served refreshments. Program chairman for the January meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Williams.

An estimated 200 persons attended the final Landisville-Salunga Community Week of Prayer service last Sunday night at the Church of the Brethren, Salunga.

Speaker of the evening was the Rev. Dr. Vassady, professor of Systematic Theology at the Evangelical and Reformed Seminary, Lancaster. Dr. Vassady, formerly of Hungary but now a citizen of the United States, selected the topic, "Be Thankful", as the theme of his address. He exhorted the group that they should be thankful for the many privileges they now enjoy and the freedom from political oppression such as is experienced in his native Hungary now. "The American people must not take things for granted," he said.

Attending the prayer service were forty members of the Couples Club of the Zion Lutheran Church, Landisville. Special music for the service was provided by the combined choirs of the community's four churches under the direction of Mrs. Walter B. Cramer.
