Discuss Insurance Program

The National American Legion Insurance program was discussed at the regular meeting at the Mount Joy American Legion last Thursday evening. The group may have a representative discuss the program with them. After a discussion of this type, if found to be advantageous, the group may recommend a change in the laws to increase yearly dues from $4.00 to $5.00. With this increase, each man of the post would be insured for $100.00.

The group decided to place the pool table for sale. All interested persons may contact the officers for details.

James Shaeffer, financial secretary, reported a paid membership of 327 for 1957.

The welfare committee reported Elias Lindemuth and Jack Germer III. Mr. Lindemuth is at his home recuperating from an accident and Mr. Germer is confined to the St. Joseph Hospital.

George Leibschtz, entertainment chairman, gave his final report on the Christmas smoker which was sponsored to finance the annual children's Christmas party at the Joy Theatre. The remaining money from the project was used to pay same delinquent bills. He was commended for the job and also named to take charge of the Easter smoker.

During a c'ub meeting, twenty-five more social members were accepted bringing the total to 125. Nineteen members attended the meeting which was in charge of Gerald Sheetz, commander.

BRAISING, STEWING DIFFERENT METHODS

There's a difference between braising and stewing. But for both cooking methods, keep liquid at a minimum to retain flavor in fat and cook slowly to used in stewing. The meat and nutrients, cautions the well-done stage in a usually cut in smaller pieces for this cooking method.

Marjorie Wormeck, extension nutrition specialist of the Pennsylvania State University, cautions that a longer time and a larger amount of water are than critics.
