Landisville - Salunga

Miss Ruth Kauffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Raymond Kauffman, Landisville, became the bride of Jay S. Barnhart, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay S. Barnhart, Mount Joy, Saturday afternoon in a candlelight ceremony at 5:30 o'clock in St. Mark's Evangelical United Brethren Church, Mount Joy.

The Rev. C. E. Ulrich, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Kenneth Shreiner, Michigan, cousin of the bridegroom, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Traditional wedding music was played by organist Mrs. Ethel Broske, William Gassman was the vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of lace over tulle and satin. The bodice was fitted and fashioned with a scalloped neckline and pleated tulle inserts. The full skirt, ending in a chapel train, was accented with five tiers of lace and tulle. Her pearl tiara held a fingertip-length veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white poinsettias.

Mrs. Anne Shahan, Lancaster, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Sloyer and Miss Sonya Horting, both of Lancaster.

All the bride's attendants wore identical white taffeta dresses. A white velvet train with a face veil, white shoes and gloves completed their attire. They carried bouquets of red poinsettias.

Raymond Geopfrich, Marietta, was best man. Barry Barnhart, brother of the bridegroom, and Donald Thome, Mount Joy, were the ushers.

Mrs. Kauffman, the bride's mother, chose a dark blue dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Barnhart, wore a gold print silk dress with gold and white accessories. Both mothers wore white gardenia corsages.

Miss Jean Newcomer, Salunga, and Miss Christine Shleman, Lancaster, were gift receivers.

A dinner reception was held following the ceremony at Hostetter's Banquet Hall in Mount Joy.

After a wedding trip to New York City, the couple will live in Landisville, Pa.

The bride is a graduate of Hempfield High School and Lancaster General Hospital School of Nursing. She is now a member of the hospital nursing staff.

Mr. Barnhart, an alumnus of Mount Joy High School, is a senior at Franklin and Marshall College, where he is a member of Sigma Phi fraternity. He plans to enter Jefferson Medical School in Philadelphia this September.

Mr. Herman A. Ries, Barbara St., Landisville, a sargeant in the Pennsylvania State Police and School Safety Patrol officer for the county, was elected superintendent of the adult Sunday School department of the Zion Lutheran Church, Landisville, last week. Mr. Ries' election came after the resignation of Earl Meisenhelter, Ruby St., Lancaster, who held that post for nine years. He will assume his duties this Sunday.

Other officers elected in the adult department are Charles Habecker, secretary, and Ben Greider, assistant; Frank Schenk, treasurer, a post he has held since the founding of the church in 1909; William King, librarian, and Mervin King and Wilbur Kauffman, assistants; Joe Brown, assistant Sunday School superintendent.

Miss Judy Eby was elected superintendent of the Young Peoples Department, and Miss Barbara Hackman, assistant. Supervising the children's Department will be Mrs. Sylvester Poff, with Mrs. Arthur Hackman, assisting. Appointed pianists for the Cradle Roll and Home Department respectively are Mrs. Esther Messer and Mrs. Gorge Miller.

The Red Rose Barber Shop Chorus will be one of the many featured groups when the East Hempfield Exchange Club and the Rohrerstown Band sponsor their "Night of Music" program at the Hempfield High School auditorium, Landisville, Saturday night, beginning at 8:00 p. m. The choristers, composed of thirty members, will be under the direction of Mr. Louis G. Jennings.

The Rohrerstown Band, under direction of Donald Peters, will feature such numbers as "Zampa" overture, George Gershwin selections, "Irish Washerwoman", "Star Dust", "At the Gremelin Ball", and "Begin the Beguine."

Special instrumental solos will feature Jack Markert, baritone, John Smith, trumpet, and Lewis Hofsted, piccolo. The majorettes, Bonnie Herr and June Evans of Penn Manor High School, will entertain in a baton-twirling routine accompanied by the band playing the march, "American Red Cross". The finale will feature the brass section, drum major and majorettes, in the patriotic march by John Phillip Sousa, "Stars and Stripes Forever."

The Hempfield High School wrestling team will give a wrestling demonstration to members of the Landisville Lions Club at a meeting of the service organization at the Landisville Fire Hall on Monday night, February 4, at 6:30 p. m.

Included in the program will be various types of holds used in the sport of wrestling and the system of scoring. Don Bissinger, coaching the Hempfield grapplers, will deliver a talk to the club on the problems involved in organizing the wrestling squad at the high school and the future possibilities in store for them. This year is the first in the history of Hempfield High School that they have had wrestling as an organized sport on an inter-scholastic competitive basis.

Although they are winless in five meets in District 3, no less than three wrestlers have shown consistent good form coupled with triumphs in either falls or decisions. Bissinger, a product of Manheim Central High School, is a graduate of Millersville State Teachers College. He wrestled for the Marauders at Millersville under Dr. Ted Rupp. He is a teacher of Social Studies at Hempfield in addition to his coaching duties.

Sixty persons attended a square dance last Saturday night at the Landisville Elementary School, sponsored by the Landisville-Salunga area Junior Chamber of Commerce. Bob Haines, Lancaster, was the caller. Refreshments were served to the group during the affair, which was open to the public.

The square dance is the second held this year by the Landisville area service club in a series of community entertainment events. They plan a "sample fair" early this spring. Joe Brown is president of the organization.

OUT ON A LIMB

By Stumpy McCulloch

Well, sir, I made a lot of New Year's resolutions this month. That's something that goes in one year and out the other, you know! Of Hannibal says the only way to keep a resolution is to lock it up in the woodshed!

But there's one resolution I aim to keep this year. I'm going to keep talking to you folks about tree farming, forestry, and wood lot management, about our national parks and our natural resources! I'm mighty proud to count you among my readers, and I hope you'll feel free to drop me a note some time. Just write me, Stumpy McCulloch, at 6101 W. Century Blvd., Los Angeles 45, California. That's where I get my mail!

What's the oldest living thing? For a long time, botanists thought the oldest were the gigantic, beautiful Sequoia trees of the High Sierra, which are as much as 3000 years old. But recently a fellow who studies climate by analyzing tree rings found three bristlecone pine trees in California's White Mountains which he says—are at least 4000 years old!
