Landisville - Salunga

An estimated 300 persons attended the "Hempfield Hi-Lites", a variety show sponsored by the staff members of the Hempfield High School newspaper, the "Flash", last Saturday night at the Landisville schools' auditorium.

The variety show, drawing upon student talent, included thirteen acts with about 35 students participating. Master of ceremonies for the show was Mike Frazer, a member of the Junior Class, who was introduced by a special routine by the cheerleaders. The school's dance band, under the direction of Mr. Russell Getz, provided music throughout the program.

The program included a Siamese Cat act, by Carol Neff, Muriel Ripley, Martha Thompson and Barbara Peffley; a string quartet composed of Lois Ann Haag, Dorothy Lehman, Mary Ann Funk and Jerry Koser; a baton-twirling routine with Pat Bender and Deanna Peffley; an accordion solo by Judy Moore; a "Rock-a-Bye Peffley"; an accordion solo by Barry Weaver; and a girls' barbershop quartet, composed of Carol Neff, Lucille Groff, Elizabeth Brubaker and Esther Brubaker, singing "Floatin' Down to Cotton Town".

Following intermission, a marimba and vibra harp ensemble by Janet Flora, Gerry Bagnoli, Theresa Martin and Jan Martin, played "Petticoats of Portugal"; a soprano solo, "Summertime", by Trevena Stehman, accompanied by Jane Young; a ballet dance by Jean Pettit and Bobby Ann Bishop; a monologue, "Girl at the Movies", by Linda Irvin; a wrestling exhibition by Ray Oberholtzer and Gary Mitchell, explained by Tom Miller; a tap dance solo featuring Judy Weller; and the final act, an organ medley of tunes from the middle thirties played by Sylvia Eshelman.

General chairman for the show was Miss Joan Cluck, senior, who was assisted by Linda Mamma, Pat Geibe, Susan Markert, Judy Martin, Thomas Miller and Adalene Hainley. Advisor to the school paper and director of the variety show was Mrs. Rollin Steinmetz.

A special sports event will be held at Hempfield High School tonight in commemoration of National Father-Son Week. The sports event will be a regular PIAA interscholastic wrestling meet between the Black Knights of Hempfield High School and the grapplers of the Milton Hershey School. Any father and son combination will be admitted to the meet free of charge, but each boy must be accompanied by his father. Fathers of members of the wrestling team will be admitted with no charge.

upon identification. The Milton Hershey-Hempfield meet tonight will be the next to last meet for the Hempfield grapplers. On Tuesday, February 26, the Black Knights will tangle with the Manheim Central High School wrestling team to close out the current season. The Hempfield team has a first year record of one victory and eight losses.

George A. Shenk, Landisville, is slated to be elected president of the Traffic Club of the Lancaster Manufacturers association on Monday, February 25, at an election to be held at the Hotel Brunswick. Shenk was nominated without opposition, and will succeed the retiring president J. Colin Robie, Jr. Mr. Schenck is the Justice of the Peace in Landisville, and is also a member of the Zion Lutheran Church and the Landisville Lions Club.

Landisville girl is recuperating in the St. Joseph's Hospital, Lancaster, after successfully going through an operation for the removal of an open safety pin lodged in her esophagus. According to the girl's parents, she is coming along as well as can be expected according to the circumstances.

The girl, Christine Brandt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Brant, 70 Elizabeth Street, Landisville, is suspected of having swallowed the pin over two weeks ago but due to her not being able to talk, was unable to tell her parents. The girl is on a liquid diet, thus no solid food particles could have lodged in her throat causing her to choke. Dr. E. A. Palmgren performed the operation by placing an instrument over the sharp point of the pin and drawing it out.

The Ladies and Men's Bible Classes of the Church of God, Landisville, will hold a four and a half-year old oyster platter and ham leaf supper at the Landisville Fire Hall on Saturday, February 23. Dinners will be served from 4:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

A senior girl at the Hempfield High School has been commended by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation for distinguished performance in its nationwide search for students of unusual ability, according to LeRoy M. Nissley, principal of the Landisville high school. The student honored is Miss Jane Young, who is in the College Preparatory course, and is also a staff member of the school yearbook and newspaper. Miss Young is also a talented musician and plays French horn in the school band as well as piano. She is also a member of the vocal groups at Hempfield. The NMS competition provides the largest system of privately financed scholarships offered in the United States and was established in 1955 through grants by the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York. This year, 162,000 outstanding seniors from 12,500 high schools entered, with 750 four-year college scholarships worth an estimated $3.75 million at stake.

Arthur K. Greiner, Elizabethtown, District Governor of District 14-D, Lions International, was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Landisville Lions Club last Monday night at the Landisville Fire Hall. Governor Greiner presented Lion
