Church To Build
New Sanctuary
Glossbrenner E. U. B.
Church has embarked on a fund raising campaign. The purpose of the campaign is to build a new sanctuary to replace the present church located at Church and Angle Streets in Florin.
The campaign organization is headed by the pastor, Charles W. Wolfe, who is honorary chairman, and Park Shetter as general chairman. Vice chairmen named are Jacob Stehman, John K. Wittle and Elmer S.
Forwood.
An every-member canvass will be conducted on Sunday, March 10, between 2:30 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. by a committee of 96. This will be the largest committee of workers ever assembled at the Glossbrenner Church.
"We are now engaged in a great adventure in Stewardship and Faith," Pastor Wolfe stated. "We have set for ourselves a task of tremendous proportions, but with the sacrifices of all our members, we will win the victory! We ask members of the Church to include in their prayers petitions for God's guidance and blessing as we undertake this, His work."
TO MAKE DEVILLED
CLAMS FEB. 27
The Ladies Bible Class of the Lutheran church will make devilled clams Feb. 27 in the parish house. Orders should be in by Feb. 22.

Tell Of Recent
Visit To U.N.
Ken Appley of Marietta and Leroy Kaylor, Mt. Joy, seniors in Donegal H. S., provided the program Tuesday noon for the Mount Joy Rotary club as it met at Hostetters.
The two boys, recent winners of the annual U. N.
Essay contest, sponsored by the Rotarians, received as their prizes a one-day New York trip to see the United Nations.
Each boy talked for about 15 minutes, telling of some of the highlights of the trip, describing the building, the organization and some of the interesting things which they saw and did.
One of the features was a stroke of good fortune which cancelled some regularly scheduled parts of the tour but provided an opportunity to see and hear King Saub.
Thus Rust drove the boys to New York and they were accompanied by Rev. H. M.
Moyer. Both men talked briefly Tuesday noon and Joseph Shaeffer, who arranged the tour, gave a brief outline of the procedure by which the boys won the trip.

JUDGES CONTEST
Dr. Thomas W. O'Connor
was one of the three judges to judge the twentieth annual American District finals of the National High School
oratorical contest last week
describing the building, the
saw and did.

saw and did.
One of the features was a
stroke of good fortune which
scheduled parts of the tour
but provided an opportunity to see and hear King Saub.
Thus Rust drove the boys
to New York and they were
accompanied by Rev. H. M.
Moyer. Both men talked
briefly Tuesday noon and
outline of the procedure by
which the boys won the trip.

JUDGES CONTEST
American District finals of
the National High School
saw and did.
