Charters To Be Given Scouts

For the first time, a family night will be featured at the annual charter presentation of the local Boy Scouts and Explorers and will be held in the Scout Den. The meeting will be held next Monday, April 15, 7:30 p.m. in the den which has been recently painted. All renovations have been completed to date with the exception of the flooring. A member from the county council will present the charters to the sponsoring group's president, Michael Pricio, president of the local Rotary Club. Mr. Pricio will in turn present them to the committee chairman of the two groups; James Phillips of the Boy Scouts and Robert Brandt, Sr., of the Explorers. The chairman will introduce their committee members and the Scout leaders. The Rev. E. M. Moyer will conduct a court of honor at which time James Phillips and Lewis Hart will become First Class Scouts. Rev. Moyer will give the opening prayer; Richard Norndorf will give the Bible reading; Dennis Fackler, the flag pledge; James Phillips, the Scout oath; John Gates, the Scout laws. A tenderfoot institute will also be conducted for the new Scouts coming into the troop from the Cubs.

ROTARIANS HEAR TWO-PART PROGRAM Mount Joy Rotarians had a two-part program Tuesday at Hostetters as they heard about the United States Navy and about the Soil Bank. Chief Petty Officer Lloyd J. Stevens of the U.S. Navy Recruiting Service talked on "Why the Navy is Still Important."

Using slides, he told of new guided missiles, nuclear power and of new submarines. He stressed the versatility and mobility of the Navy in time of war and the important part it can play in keeping sea lanes open for important raw materials. Kenneth Young, Donegal high school student who has been unusually successful in vocational agriculture projects, spoke concerning the Soil Bank program. His 10-minute discussion will be used in the Future Farmers of America public speaking contest, to be held Sunday. He was introduced by Grant Miller, vocational agriculture teacher at Donegal High. The program was arranged by Ray Wiley.

JOINS MARINES Lester Milton Huber, Salunga, enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps, it was announced Monday by M/Sgt. Sergeant C. Lehman, USMC, of the Marine Corps Recruiting Substation, Lancaster. He was assigned to aviation duty.
