Band Concert Planned For Tuesday

The third annual concert of the Mount Joy Elementary school band will be held next Tuesday, May 21, 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. Mrs. George Broske will direct the 48-piece band, the largest since it was organized three years ago.

Awards Given At FFA Affair

The Witness Oak Chapter of Future Farmers of America named two Chapter Star Farmers at the annual banquet of the group Friday in the cafeteria of Donegal high school. Glenn Aldinger, a senior, and Kenneth Young, a junior, who will be chapter president next year, were awarded the chapter star farmer award jointly.

Awards Are Given Six Students

Six junior high school students were given awards on Friday by two local American Legion and auxiliary units. At Donegal high school James Bennett, Carol Cupper, Samuel Grove and Patricia Phillips were the honored students and in Hempfield high school, John F. Schultz and Norma Jeanne Siegler were named the outstanding students.

Road-E-O Held For Students

Despite the poor weather conditions Saturday, Mount Joy's first bicycle road-e-o was held by the local Jay-Cees at the local elementary school. The contestants with their bicycles went through a series of bicycle inspection and riding skills.

Awards Given At FFA Affair

Marilyn Leakway was honored as the FFA Chapter Queen and Dolores Frantz was named her lady in waiting. Miss Rebekah Schaeffer, assistant professor of speech at Millersville State Teachers College, was the guest speaker. Grant Miller is advisor for the FFA chapter.

Students Given Cash Prizes
Thirty-eight students were awarded prizes in contests sponsored by the local First National Bank and Trust Company.
At the beginning of the school year, the bank had presented map kits to all the students in the fifth and sixth grades in the Farmdale School, Mount Joy R1, Kraybill Menonite, Mount Joy R1, Maytown, Mount Joy, Florin North and Elm Tree, Mount Joy, R2.
First and second prizes were given in each fifth and sixth grade for the best maps. The students also entered an essay contest with topics in conjunction with the map study.
The cash prizes were awarded last week during a special afternoon event at the bank. Jean Witmer, a sixth grade student at Elm Tree school, was awarded the $10 first prize in the essay contest; Marcia Cooksey, fifth grade of Maytown, second; Faye Gerber, fifth grade of Kraybill; and Nancy Vogle, fifth grade of Florin North, tied for third place.
Cash prize winners in the map contest were Thaddeus M. Hershey, Jean Witmer, Joseph Thome and Larue Hostetter, Elm Tree; Sandra Shopf, Ada Conley, Barry Renner, Connie McKinney, Carolyn Hess, Peggy Youtz, Sandra Doll and Elva Conley, Farmdale; Helma Bade, Ruth Heisey, Fay Barber and Elvin Stauffer, Kraybill; Nancy Spangler, Susie Martin, Erma Ruth Hess, Janet Brubaker, Janet Horner, Suzanne Eshelman, Charles Theobald and Carole Mumma, Maytown; Kathleen Dolan, Robert Eshelman, Helen Rutt, Sandra Kretzing, Louise Schroll, Thomas Heisey, John Hart and Jon Dillinger, Mount Joy; Nancy Vogle and David Becker, of Florin North.
The winning maps are on display in the lobby of the bank. Officials of the bank announced that the maps served as an aid to the teachers and a visual educational help to the children. The bank plans to continue supplying the fifth graders with these paste-up maps again next year.
DISK JOCKEY TO APPEAR AT DANCE
Ed Miller, disk jockey from WLAN-Radio, Lancaster, will appear at the tennage dance to be held at the local firehouse next Saturday, May 18. Mr. Miller will have charge of the evening's dance which is being sponsored by the auxiliary to the fire company.
