

Legion Honors Guests

Past commanders were guests of honor at a meeting Thursday, May 9, of the Walter S. Ebersole Post 185 American Legion. Thirteen of the twenty-six living past commanders attended the dinner meeting, held at the posthome.

Those who attended were: Benjamin Groff (first commander and organizer in 1919); Clyde Eshleman, P. B. Heilig, Earl Miller, B. A. Shupp, Warren Greenawalt, Roy B. Sheetz (also a past Eastern Vice Commander), John Zink, James Shaeffer (also a past district commander), Harold Bender, John Germer, Warden Halter and Charles J. Bennett, Jr.

Otto Messner was the guest speaker and spoke on the American Legion and citizenship. Mr. Messner, who is the only past departmental commander from this district, was introduced by Gerald Sheetz, commander. Other commanders of the post have been the late Dr. William Workman, Henry O'Neil, the late George Zeller, Edgar Eshleman, P. Kraybill Strickler, Ross Eshleman, Paul Hipple, Loren Somers, the late C. A. Coen, John Stoll, the late J. S. Kuhns, Charles Latchford, Albert Myers, Frank Germer, the late Raymond Nisslev, George Brown II, Frank Good, the late Irvin Fritz and Harry Hoffman.

During the business meeting, the group voted to send two boys to Keystone Boys' Camp next month at Lock Haven State Teachers College. Commander Sheetz named Irvin Smith, Mr. Bennett and Carl Peifer as a nominating committee to report at the next meeting. Six new members were accepted into the post. Emery Krick, post adjutant, offered the invocation prior to the dinner.

Rotarians See Slides Of Alaska

Dr. Dave Schlosser, who recently returned from a year tour of duty in Alaska with the U. S. Army, provided the program Tuesday noon for Mount Joy Rotarians.

Using several of his many colored slides, he talked of his experiences in the far north country, including his work, the climate, army routine and life in general. One phase of his talk devoted to telling of a 400-mile army problem, which included 4,000 men operating in weather as cold as 60 degrees below zero.

The program was arranged by Ray Wiley as a substitute when Donegal high school students could not appear.

PEGGY KLINE WEDS ROBERT MILLER

The marriage of Miss Peggy Ann Kline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob M. Kline, Mount Joy R2, to Mr. Robert Gordon Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. Miller, of Palmyra, took place Saturday, May 11, at 2:30 P. M. in the Mount Joy Methodist Church.

The Rev. George K. Ludwig officiated at the double rite ceremony. Miss Esther Walters, Mount Joy, played the wedding music, and Richard G. Kline, Elizabethtown brother of the bride, was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Kline wore a gown of embroidered white tulle. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid and shower.

Miss Fay Stephens, Mannheim, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor; Miss Judith Alexander, Hamburg, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and Miss Carol Miller, Palmyra, sister of the groom, was junior bridesmaid.

Thomas Cline, Palmyra, was best man, with Bruce Kline, Mount Joy R2, brother of the bride and Kay Stephens, Mannheim R4, cousin of the bride, as ushers.

The bride is employed as a secretary at the Masonic Homes, Elizabethtown and the groom is in the U. S. Army, stationed at Denver, Colorado.

The bride was feted at a number of pre-nuptial parties, including a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Fay Stephens and Mrs. Richard Kline, and a Buffet Supper following rehearsal at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Hamblcock, Mt. Joy R2.

CLUB COMPLETES YEAR AT SCHOOL

Fifteen girls reported each Monday morning throughout the school year at Donegal high school for instructions in the art of home nursing and to learn of agencies available to the general public for use in the maintenance of good health.

Nine of the girls are serving as volunteer nurses' aides at St. Joseph's Hospital in Lancaster. Three of the club members have made application for nurses' training at local hospitals.

Among the activities of the club this year were a trip to the Elizabethtown Crippled Children's Hospital to talk on film on the service offered by the Cancer Society and the Department of Public Health, and the purchase of several books in the health and nursing fields to be placed in the school library. Members of the club also served as assistants to the school nurse, Mrs. Sadie Brooks, school nurse, in advisor of the club.

ELECTED AS SECRETARY

Mrs. Glen Forney, Donegal Springs Road, was elected secretary of the Laboratory Association of the Research Development Center of Armstrong Cork Company Lancaster. The election was held at the monthly dinner meeting of the group last Thursday evening at the development plant cafeteria. Mrs. Forney works in the glass and closure section.

Family Life Meeting Set

Dr. and Mrs. DeWitt L. Miller of Hagerstown, Maryland, will be the guest leaders in the Family Life Institute, to be held this coming weekend in the Church of the Brethren, Elizabethtown. Serving as pastoral leaders of a large church in Hagerstown, Dr. and Mrs. Miller bring a wealth of background and experience to this Institute, sponsored each year by the Family Life Committee of the Church. Dr. Miller will preach at the 10:30 Sunday morning worship hour on "Better Homes For Today's Demands", and with Mrs. Miller, will conduct the evening discussion at 7:30 on "Your Family Can Be Fun".

In addition, they will meet with all Young Adults of the Church, on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Martin, 345 Ridge Road, Elizabethtown, and during the Church School hour on Sunday morning with several classes and departments. Their appointments also include the College Student Fellowship on Sunday night at 6:45, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kettering, 435 N. Spruce St., Elizabethtown.

The Institute is planned by a Committee composed of Mr. Ralph L. Musser, Chairman, Mrs. Merle E. Black, Jr., Mrs. Paul Witman, Mrs. Nevin H. Zuck and Dr. Paul F. Leicht. The object of the various sessions is to provide leadership designed to strengthen Christian family life.

SCHOOL PLANS ANNOUNCED

"I'm No Fool", a film on water safety, will be shown to the student body of Donegal high school next Wednesday, May 29.

That same evening an all sports banquet will be held in the school cafeteria. The 6:30 p.m. affair will feature the awarding of spring sports letters.

BREAKS HIP

Emanuel Ebersole, 94 years old, formerly of the Black Swamp near Falmouth for 60 years, fell Saturday at the Orville Mennonite Home, and broke his hip. He was taken to the Lancaster General Hospital for an operation on his hip, and according to late reports, is getting along as well as can be expected. He would be happy to hear from his friends.

PARADE IS SATURDAY

Both the Mount Joy Elementary School band and the Donegal high school band will appear in the Armed Forces Day Parade Saturday in Lancaster. The parade is scheduled to move at 2 p.m.

When you finally get your place in the sun you'll also find you will be blistered occasionally.

FOG CAUSES TWO ACCIDENTS

Two three-car crashes occurred with a few minutes Monday morning on Route 230 east of Elizabethtown in which two local persons were involved. The highway was shrouded in fog at the time of the accidents.

An auto driven by Mrs. Dorothy McLaughlin, Mount Joy R2, rammed into a stopped auto operated by Lester H. Funk, Columbia Avenue. His car was forced into another stopped car driven by Benjamin Stigelman, Bausman. No one was injured but damage was estimated at $750.

Directors Are Named For Club

Eleven directors were elected to the Donegal high school band club at the recent meeting of the club. At the next meeting June 3, election of officers will be held with the new directors as candidates. Mrs. D. C. Mumper, Clayton Aument and Mrs. Ralph Berrier, Mt. Joy Borough; Mrs. Mary Kauffman, Mrs. Grace Baker and Edgar Appley, Marietta; William Young, Mrs. J. N. Keener and George Bowers, East Donegal Twp.; and Mrs. Clarence Hollinger and Aaron Buckwalter, Mount Joy Township, were elected.

The club sponsored a trip to Washington, D. C. Monday for members of the senior high school next Wednesday, May 29. The White House, Washington Monument and Smithsonian Institute. In the evening they attended a band concert by the National Symphony Band in the Pan American building.
