My Favorite Prayer

Submitted to The Laymen's National Committee by
DR. F. B. HARRIS
Chaplain of the U. S. Senate
Our Father, God, Who hath made and preserved us a Nation—our fathers trusted in Thee and were not confounded. In Thee we trust. Thou hast taught us to love truth and beauty and goodness. May Thy truth make us free—free from pride and prejudice and from all the ugly sins of disposition that doth so easily beset us.

Lift us above the mud and scum of mere things into holiness of Thy beauty so that even the common task and the trivial round may be edged with crimson and gold. Lead us in the paths of righteousness for Thy name's sake.

Enrich us with those durable satisfactions of life so that the multiplying years may not find us bankrupt in those things that matter most—the golden currency of Faith and Hope and Love.

And in these dangerous and desperate days when the precious things we hold nearest our hearts are threatened by sinister forces without pity or conscience, help us to give the best that is in us against the wrongs that need resistance, for the right that needs assistance, to the future in the distance and the good that we may do.

We ask in that Name that is above every name.

MEMORIAL SERVICES
Memorial Day services will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, May 30, at the Falmouth cemetery. The program will include band music, an address by Chaplain E. B. Hoover of the Elizabethtown College faculty, speaking on the topic, "On Memorial Day." Mrs. L. May Brinser will have charge of the scripture reading and offer the prayer. The children will decorate the graves, and the American Legion will place flags on the veterans' graves.

BARBECUE PLANNED FOR MEMORIAL DAY
Again this year, a chicken barbecue is being planned by the Calvary Club of the Mt. Joy Presbyterian Church. The barbecue will be held Memorial Day, Thursday, May 30. The affair will be held on the church yard to the rear of the church. In case of rain, the event will move indoors to the church basement.

The meals will be served on the church lawn or as "take-outs". Tickets will be sold prior to the event.

DO LUTHERANS IDOLIZE A BOOK?
Do Lutherans accept the Holy Bible as the inspired Word of God? Resoundingly, "Yes!"

But: Are Lutherans "fundamentalists?" Or do they doubt the human mind's God-given task of inquiring into the Scriptures? Emphatically, "No!"

Lutherans resist with their whole beings any effort to substitute human intellect for the revealed Word. But they are in the forefront of the effort to make human intellect the servant of the Word.

Lutherans do not believe that the human mind can evolve religious truth. But they do believe that the mind is an instrument for receiving whatever knowledge of His mysteries God chooses to reveal.

Lutherans do not believe the Bible is the sum total of all possible human knowledge. But they do believe the Bible is the infallible Word in relation.

"In the beginning, God created..." That is a religious truth, accepted without reservation. But how He created—that may be a scientific question open for human inquiry.

Methodist Pastor To Willow Street

The Rev. G. K. Ludwig, for the past two years pastor of the Mount Joy and Salunga Methodist churches, has been appointed to serve the Willow Street church, Willow Street, Pa.

Assignment was made Sunday at Philadelphia at the 171st annual meeting of the Philadelphia Methodist Conference.

To fill the pulpits here, Bishop Fred Pierce Corson has appointed the Rev. Menno E. Good, who will be graduated this month from the Garrett Bible Institute, Chicago. His home formerly was in Pennsylvania.

He will move to the parsonage here in about a month. He will give full time to the work of the two local churches.

Rev. Ludwig has served locally as a supply pastor while a student at Lancaster. At Willow Street he will continue his studies.

At Philadelphia last week he received his deacon's ordination and was received in on trial as a member of the Conference.

He and his family will move to Willow Street church parsonage next Wednesday. There he will succeed the Rev. J. G. Campbell, who was assigned to the Jim Thorpe Methodist church.

An American Psalm

By J. Gustav White
(Courtesy Bank Notes)
Thou hast made me a ruler, O Lord in this nation,
Far greater than he who once sat on a throne.

Did the King of the East have his chariot & horses? Lo, I have an automobile.
Had he richest food and fine tunics of purple?
The Ends of the earth bring their gifts to my home;
An hundred strong backs of electrical slaves
I command for my family's service.

I lift up my voice—and counsellors listen;
I speak—the rulers of nations attend.
Thou surely hast given to me a large place;
My lap Thou hast filled with great wealth.
Yet my soul is disquieted in me; O Lord;

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL
A Strawberry Festival is being planned by St. Luke's Episcopal church on Saturday, June 1.

Minerva was goddess of Wisdom.
My heart is depressed and is often cast down;
For to whom Thou hast given so bountifully,
Of him will much more be required.
Pray, open the eyes of Thy case-loving servant;
Let me not look blindly upon the world's needs,
But help me share gladly with all brother heirs
The gifts Thou has showered on America.

For All We Hold Sacred Attend Church!

BRAVE WORDS

That's my daughter Ellen standing up there in her cap and gown. Valetictorian of her class! I'd be a strange mother if I didn't feel a lump in my throat, and a tremendous surge of pride.

It just doesn't seem possible that my Ellen is grown-up. Like any mother, I have visions of a tiny baby . . . a little girl in pigtails . . . a child, beginning school.

And now here she is, speaking about the future that she and her classmates envision . . . the things they are going to try to do . . . their hopes and dreams.

They are brave words, all of them . . . brave dreams. And like all parents, I pray that most of them will come true. But I know that in times of failure, my Ellen will have an added strength because of her Faith, and her devotion to the Church.

How glad, how thankful, I am for that!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
