S.S. Class Sends Layettes Abroad

The articles for two infant layettes were brought and packaged by the Young Ladies Bible Class of Trinity Lutheran Church at their monthly meeting with Mrs. Robert Hoffmann presiding. The layette packages are sent over seas for the needy.

The devotions and discussions were centered on the Christian Family which was led by Ethel Crowl, Lillian Downing and Ethel Heisey, our hostesses.

Preparation is being made for Daily Vacation Church School which will be held for two weeks - June 17-28 inclusively. The topic for DVCS this year is Bible Stories To Live By. A volunteer group under the supervision of Mrs. Joyce Brown will houseclean the kitchen at the church, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Heilig, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Brown and Mr. and Mrs. James Meminger will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wivell to plan the Family Picnic which will be held on June 10.

The meeting was closed to prepare sending the layettes and enjoy refreshments by the hostesses. The hostesses for the June meeting will be Dottie Heilig, Mae Gerberich and Ethel Heisey.

British Mayor Gets Hamilton Watch

A Hamilton electric watch has been presented to the mayor of Reading, England, by the mayor of Reading, Pa. The U. S. mayor got a 148-year-old silver watch in return. The watches were exchanged in a gesture of friendship. The electric watch was a gift of the Hamilton Watch Co., Lancaster.

Two more new houses are going up on Park avenue. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zerphery is well on its way to completion. Ground was broken just recently for the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Max King of Maytown.

Two homes also are being constructed on Donegal Springs road near its intersection with Spooky Nook road. One is being built by the Men's Work of the Florin Church of the Brethren, as a project to add money to the church's building fund. It is expected that the house will be ready to sell in 30 to 60 days. The other house is being built by Mr. and Mrs. Max King of Maytown.
