PAUSE FOR REFLECTION

With JAMES C. INGEBRESEN President, Spiritual Mobilization

Charles Van Doren, TV's quiz genius, in a recent issue of This Week magazine, told how his father, Mark Van Doren, poet and critic, encouraged him, as a boy, to find the answers to innumerable questions and store them in his mind.

But Charles then added: "There are two kinds of questions: the ones that have answers that can be found in books or by asking an expert and the ones that have no answers that are satisfactory when they come from anybody but yourself. The answers to the great questions—What is life? What is love? What should a man do?—these are never simple, and must be thought out by each human being."

This, I think, is profound truth. But there is one book that can help us answer even these questions—the Book of books.

It was the great literary scholar, William Lyon Phelps, who said, "I believe a knowledge of the Bible without a college course is more valuable than a college course without a knowledge of the Bible."

So, while we are frantically trying to produce more engineers, more technicians, and more college-trained people of every other kind, let us not forget that to fill the head while leaving the heart empty is like growing a tree with a top too heavy for the trunk to support. In the testing time, when "panic" strikes like a storm and calamity comes like a whirlwind, it is the stout of heart, rather than the merely stuffed of head, who will endure.

Feelin' Fine

They ain't no use in kickin' your way; it does no good to hollar 'round, and grumble night and day.

The thing to do's to curb yer grief, cut out your little whine, and when they ask you how you are, just say, "I'm feelin' fine!"

Yer heart may be just bustin' with some real or fancied woe, but if you smile the other folks aint vey apt to know The world laughs at heart-aches, friend, be they yours or mine, So when they ask you how you are, just say, "I'm feelin' fine!"

For All We Hold Sacred . . . . . Attend Church!

WEDDING DAY

"With this ring I thee wed."

Our marriage is beginning where a marriage should begin—in Church. Our hands meet across the Bible. My eyes fall to the printed page, and the verse I see there is so appropriate that I catch my breath in awe and amazement.

Here is the story of a king who long ago sought for a virtuous woman and was told that her price would be far above rubies. Here are detailed the qualities that a truly virtuous woman would have—faithfulness, industry, thrift, compassion, courage, strength, honor.

As I look up at my new husband, I feel a surge of humility. I make a silent pledge that these words in Proverbs will be my guide as his wife. They're a challenge, I know. A big challenge! But, with the help of the Church, I'm going to try to live up to them.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
