CUBS SPONSOR FAMILY PICNIC
Local Cub Scouts held a family picnic at the Little Chiques Park Wednesday night. During the evening Rodney Rice received his wolf advancement and one gold arrow point; Harold Smith received one gold arrow point and one silver arrow point; and Michael Gerner received one silver point.

Plans were completed to sponsor a father and son camping trip July 21 and 22 at Heisey's Ranch, Rheems, Pa. During an Indian ceremony outgoing Cubmaster Ralph Rice turned over his position to Clyde Tripple, new Cubmaster. Adults are needed at the start of dens this fall. Several den mothers, den fathers and assistant den mothers will be needed when den meetings begin in September.

Farm Women Plan Bus Trip
The regular monthly meeting of Farm Women Society No. 4 scheduled for Saturday, June 29, has been cancelled due to the death of Ephram Bard, Ironville. The meeting has been scheduled for the Bard home. The group will meet in its next regular session Saturday, July 27, for a picnic at the Salunga Pavillion.

A bus trip is planned by the society for Wednesday, July 31, to Ocean City, New Jersey. Any persons interested in taking the trip are asked to call Mrs. Daniel Will, Mount Joy R2. Both the society and society No. 3 will entertain with refreshments at the county home July 10.

Three Enroll At YMCA Camp
When Camp Shand, Lancaster's YMCA camp, opened for its sixty-fourth season Sunday, three local boys were enrolled for the first camping period. Two hundred and fifty boys enrolled for the two-week periods of the camp located near Carlisle.

Charles Heaps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heaps, Marietta Avenue; and Robert Walker, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Walker, East Main Street, were enrolled as campers and Michael Mumma, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Mumma, was enrolled as counsellor.

A feature of this year's camp will be "trip camping". Under the program, older boys will take trips to places of historical interest and stop over at state parks for out-of-door camping and cooking.

Stage Veteran To Play Lead At Mt. Gretna
Gretna's favorite character actress—Elaine Ivans—will be seen in a featured role in the funny, family frolic entitled "The Loud Red Patrick", which opens tonight at the Gretna Playhouse under the direction of Charles F. Coghlan.

Elaine, whose charming personality has endeared her to everyone who knows her, has been in the "acting business" for the past 43 years. A one-time silent picture star, she chose the stage as her main interest because she loves people. "There's nothing more wonderful than to hear an audience laugh and applaud," she'll tell you. Gene Calvin will play the title role in "Loud Red Patrick" which runs through Wednesday, July 3rd. Others taking part include Jonathan Main, Vanita Brown, Mary Jane Kersey, Bill Ketterman, Ed Berberian, Linda Lee Spory, Mary Ann Thurmond.

PLATTER CHATTER
By Nancy Rainbolt

I got a letter in the mail the other week from Debbie Haverstick. She has used her imagination and come up with a song title story. It is entitled, "From a School Ring to a Wedding Ring". I'm sure you will enjoy it.

"Come Go With Me", "I'm Walkin'" to school. School isn't "So Rare", that's why I hope our "School Days" are "Gone" soon. Those "Four Walls" make me "All Shook Up" and my mind goes "Round and Round". During school it's usually "Bye Bye Love" and no "Teenagers' Romance". "After School" days are over, my "Little Darlin'" and I made a "Pledge of Love" that school is "Too Much" and instead we'd get married. On our honeymoon we'll go to the beach and lie under the "Dark Moon," and write "Love Letters in the Sand." This seems like "Almost Paradise". When I first met "Marianne" it was at the school prom, I had on a "White Sportcoat" and she looked like a "Party Doll." Soon she was in my "Empty Arms." From now on I'm "Playing for Keeps."

MIDGETS POSTPONE MONDAY GAME
Local Midgets were rained out Monday night when a game with Elizabethtown was postponed. Wednesday night the locals suffered a defeat from Marietta 10-0. The manager is attempting to arrange for a practice match for Friday night, possibly with Washington Boro. Next Monday the postponed game will be played with Elizabethtown at Elizabethtown.

The management of the team is making a bid for the annual Lanco League All-Star game to be played locally.

INVOLVED IN ACCIDENT
Clyde E. Gerberich, West Main Street, was involved in a auto accident in Lancaster Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Gerberich was charged with reckless driving after his auto caught the bumper of the cruiser which resulted in damage to the cruiser and light damage to the Gerberich auto.
