

Scouts Prepare For Jamboree

2 ARE ATTENDING KEYSTONE CAMP

Wayne Kleiner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kleiner, Florin; and Michael McDivitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McDivitt, Marietta, left Sunday for a week's stay at the Pennsylvania Keystone Camp.

The two were chosen to represent the area by the Walter S. Ebersole Post 185 American Legion. They will both be seniors at Donegal High School next fall.

Albert Kleiner transported the two boys and the two representatives from the Manheim post, Robert Greiner and James Lawton. The party assembled at the Sheetz Funeral Home Sunday morning for the trip to the Lock Haven State Teachers College where the one week camp is being held.

AUXILIARY CHANGES MEETING NIGHT

Fifteen members attended the meeting of the local fire company auxiliary last Thursday in the firehouse. Mrs. George Copenhaver was in charge. Birthday greetings were extended to Mrs. Minnie Gibbons.

The next meeting of the group has been changed from the regular meeting night to Thursday, July 11.

Seven local Boy Scouts and Explorers will be among the 111 boys from Lancaster County to attend the National Jamboree in Valley Forge.

The county boys will be divided into three troops for the camping period. July 9 is the departure date for those from the county who will leave from Lancaster and return home July 19.

The Boy Scouts to attend are: James Phillips and John Gates. Explorers will be Harold Etsell, Jr., Richard Becker, Ralph Rice, Bernell Heisey, and Robert Buche-nauer.

Immediately following the jamboree, Robert Buche-nauer will leave for Europe for the International jamboree jubilee. Harold Etsell will serve as a junior assistant Scoutmaster at the national jamboree. He was also chosen to serve in the Region 3 band which will be the official jamboree band. He will play trumpet in the musical organization.

Farm Women No. 8 Sponsor Picnic

Sixty members and families attended the Saturday picnic of the Farm Women Society No. 8 at the Donegal Club House in Donegal Spring. Miss Mary Strickler gave an illustrated talk on her recent stay in Europe.

Mrs. Clinton Eby, Mrs. David Witmer, Mrs. H. W. Crouse, Mrs. Amos Newcomer, Mrs. Christ Stoner and Mrs. Charles Shank were hostesses.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garber, Mount Joy R1. Miss Ellen Garber will be guest speaker.

IS EVERYBODY HAPPY?

INJURED IN CRASH

Mrs. Jane Stites, thirty-four, 37 West Main Street, was injured Monday while riding in a car driven by her husband, Coleman H. Stites, on Route 230 at Landisville.

Mrs. Stites was treated at Lancaster General Hospital for a cut on the right arm. State Police said B. H. Shenk, seventy-five, Landisville, was headed south of Church Street, Landisville, and his auto was struck broadside by the Stites auto as he crossed the bypass. Shenk was charged with failure to yield the right of way. Total damage was estimated at $550.

ATTEND PICNIC

Twenty-four members attended a picnic meeting of the Sisterhood Bible Class of St. Mark's E.U.B. church Tuesday night held indoors because of the rainy weather. A program and game highlighted the evening. The group decided to sell Christmas cards in the near future. Miss Eunice Herr, president, was in charge.

Donegal Society Holds Meeting

Cameron Hawley, Lancaster author, told members of the Donegal Society that China is the coming Communist power to be feared. Mr. Hawley was the main speaker at the 44th annual reunion of the Society held in Donegal Presbyterian Church, Thursday, June 20.

During the business meeting two local persons were named to the slate of new officers. Miss Mary Cameron, Donegal Springs, was named a vice president; and Maurice N. Bailey, Donegal Springs Road, was named secretary-treasurer.

Prior to the afternoon session, a memorial tree was dedicated in memory of Miss Mary Watson Patterson, Mount Joy, a member of an old Donegal family, and a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Mount Joy. The tree, a white oak, was presented by Mrs. Elbert V. Brown, Carlisle, who was a friend of Miss Patterson. The tree is planted near the driveway entrance.

TAKES ONE TRIP

The local community ambulance was called to take one trip last week. A Mr. Davis, Birchland Avenue, was transported to the St. Joseph's Hospital Friday, June 21, by drivers Christ Charles and Ray Myers with Mrs. Robert Hoffmaster as accompanying nurse.

To Move Office, Change Hours

Beginning Monday, Dr. Stauffer posted the following hours to be in effect during the summer: Monday thru Friday 9:00 until 4:00; Tuesday evening 6:00 till 8:00; Saturday morning 9:00 till 12:00. Hours on Friday evening and Saturday afternoon will be by appointment only. Special hours, other than those listed above, are available that he will move to his new office location at 81 E. Main Street, 1st floor rear, behind Wiley & Rutt Insurance office about the end of August.
