To Make Trip With FFA Boys

Melvin Shenk, Mount Joy R2, is among a group of six F. F. A. Manheim Central high school chapter members to make a cross-country tour. The group accompanied by their advisor Paul Miller, left Monday. Their first stop was the Natural Bridge, Virginia; on through Tennessee to Louisiana to Mexico, California and return via the northern route. They will sleep out, cooking breakfast and supper and expect to return home by August 15. The trip was financed with money raised through chapter programs of growing tobacco, corn, oats, wheat and hay and selling seeds and calendar ads.

SENTENCE REFUSED

Elmer J. Murphy, Rheems, sentenced March 9, 1956, to 1½ to 3 years on arson charges was refused a commutation of his term in county prison by the State Board of Pardons last Thursday. State police charged Murphy burned his car because an insurance company declined to pay a $200 damage claim.

To Make Gretna Playhouse Debut

"Slightly Married," a comedy which the playwright Aileen Leslie has subtitled "The Story of the Careless Stork," opens at the Gretna Playhouse for a week's run Thursday, July 4th.

Directed by Charles F. Coghlan, "Slightly Married" enjoyed a healthy run on Broadway several years back and will serve to introduce area summer theatre-goers to Charm Sorbello, who makes her Gretna acting debut in the role of the mother of several "overly-inquisitive" teen-agers.

Sharing lead roles with her will be Gene Galvin, Mary Jane Kersey, Vanita Brown, Jonathan Main, George Carley, Elaine Ivans, Bill Ashley, and Ed Berberian, all Gretna regulars. Appearing for the first time this summer will be Ann Herr, Pati Miller and Gerald Hanley. Gene P. Otto is co-producer with Coghlan.

On March 21 and Sept. 23, day and night are of equal duration in every part of the world.
