Lost Boat

Is Recovered

The aluminum boat thought stolen from the Little Chiquis School Park has been recovered. The boat had been purchased by the SICO Company for use at the park and had been anchored in the creek. The boat was discovered upstream near the local water works by a group of boys Tuesday. Although the oars had not been with the boat, it was discovered that limbs had been used to guide the boat. Although it was mud-covered, it was not damaged.

For finding the lost boat, the boys were given a rope swing over the swimming area which they had requested. Company workmen installed the swing Wednesday.
After the boat has been cleaned, it will again be stationed at the park for use but will be chained. Frank Germer will be in charge of the key to the locked chain and persons may contact Mr.
Germer for use of the boat.

HIGHWAY ZOO

The WOLF
This is the prowler, the rogue of the road, the cunning Casanova. He may be middle-aged, bald and a little winded. But he's giving every babe the eye, regardless. If he'd react to a stop light like he does to a doll, he'd be a dream driver instead of a traffic nightmare.

ABUNDANT LIFE
BY ORAL ROBERTS

TURN ME LOOSE — I'M GOING TO WALK

The world cannot hear this message too often. "God is a good God." He is able and willing to help you. Our problem is to turn our faith loose.

Anna's history was pretty bleak. In January 1951, she was in a train-car wreck and sustained a severely fractured right leg and complications. When Anna was released from Hermann Hospital, Houston, Texas — she was on crutches.

Sgt. Bill W., the friend with whom Anna was riding when the train-auto accident occurred, fell in love with her and they were married. However on September 22, 1952, she was stricken with polio and rushed to Jefferson Davis Hospital, Houston's Polio Center. The baby, little Benjamin Rex, was born January 7, 1953. Two weeks later, Anna left the hospital — still on crutches.

Just one year later, spondyl-itis, a disease similar to polio, entered into Anna's life. This left her confined to a wheel chair.

April 25, 1955 they arrived in Wichita Falls, Texas where Bill was stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base. On the first Sunday, Bill and Anna and another young couple were watching a religious television program in their home. The program was concerning God's love and His power.
He was presented as a good God, One Who is able to heal. At the close of the program there was prayer for those viewing the program.

Bill shot a quick glance at his wife sitting across the room from him. He and the other couple were praying quietly to themselves. He said, "At that precise moment a strange feeling entered into Anna's frail body and she said there was a general tingling throughout her body. Her legs felt strange and she exclaimed, "I'm going to walk. God has hold of me." Anna W. did walk. Her unsteady steps grew firm. She tossed back her head and cried exultantly, "The Lord has healed me!"

She picked up little Benny, raised him high over her head and laughed with the thrill of full motherhood. This was her child and although he was 23 months old, this was the first time she had ever had strength to lift him.

What an excited group of people! Anna was crying and laughing, and Harold and Bill were giving happy shouts of praise for the miracle of deliverance.
Anna was healed! Anna is walking today.

Here is the story of the Wichita Falls miracle that has been published in every major newspaper in the United States and broadcast over several radio networks. It happened on May 1, 1955 at 1:53 p.m., Sunday afternoon.

TELLS OF TREAT

An address which caused much comment when it was originally given at the recent annual meeting of the Donegal Society, was repeated Tuesday noon for Mount Joy Rotarians.

At the Donegal meeting, Simon Nissley transcribed the address with his tape recorder and he replayed it as the feature of the weekly luncheon at Hostetters.

The speaker, Cameron Hawley, recently returned from a second trip around the world to accumulate background material for his writing, made a strong case concerning Red China.

It is his opinion that the U. S. has more to fear from that area than from Communist Russia.
