Landisville - Salunga

By Richard Jones
Correspondent

The Landisville Lions Club will hear Mr. Paul Rodenhauer, production manager for WGAL-TV, speak at a meeting of the club Monday, August 5, at the Landisville Fire Hall at 6:30 p.m.

Presiding at the meeting of the civic organization will be Henry Lehman, club president. William Snavely is program chairman. The club is making plans for its annual family picnic to be held on August 19.

The Couples Club of the Zion Lutheran Church will hold a swimming party for the friends and relatives on August meeting Saturday, August 3, at the J. Richard Nissley pool in Landisville.

Swimming will be from 6 to 9 p. m. Refreshments will be served. Program committee members in charge of the event are Mr. and Mrs. J. Richard Nissley, Mr. and Mrs. Simon P. Minnich, and Mr. and Mrs. George P. Shenck.

The churches of Landisville and Salunga are completing plans for their Community Vespers Services which are scheduled to begin on Sunday, August 4 and will continue each Sunday through August 25. The vespers services will be held at the Landisville Methodist Camp Meeting Grounds, each of the services beginning at 7:30 p.m.

On August 4, the Landisville Church of God will conduct the services with the Reverend Thomas Tillett delivering the sermon; August 11, the Landisville Zion Lutheran Church, the Reverend Ernest P. Leer, pastor, August 18, Salunga Methodist Church, the Reverend Meno Good, pastor; and the final service on August 25, the Salunga Church of the Brethren with the Reverend Norman L. Bowers, pastor, officiating. Devotions and special music will be given by the church whose pastor is preaching.

A total of 287 persons attended the final service of the Landisville Methodist Camp Meeting last Sunday evening, according to the Reverend George C. Kramer, spiritual director for the program and pastor of the Lancaster Avenue Methodist Church, Lancaster.

Speaker for the finale to the 10-day program, which started on July 12 and continued through July 21, was the Reverend Donald F. Miller, pastor of the Tabernacle Memorial Methodist Church, Philadelphia, and formerly pastor of the Leola Methodist Church. The Rev. Miller's message was on the topic, "Relating Our Lives to Christ". Theme for the 1957 camp meeting was, "That I May Know Him". The choir of the St. Paul's Methodist Church, Lancaster, under the direction of Frances H. Williamson, provided special music.

In the closing ceremony following the message, the persons attending formed a living cross in front of the pavilion and sang the hymn, "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds". The Rev. Kramer reports that the 10-day session was "very successful".

ABUNDANT LIFE

BY ORAL ROBERTS

TURN ME LOOSE - I'M GOING TO WALK

The world cannot hear this message too often, "God is a good God." He is able and willing to help you. Our problem is to turn our faith loose.

Anna's history was pretty bleak. In January 1951, she was in a train-car wreck and sustained a severely fractured right leg and complications. When Anna was released from Hermann Hospital, Houston, Texas—she was on crutches.

Sgt. Bill W., the friend with whom Anna was riding when the train-accident occurred, fell in love with her and they were married. However on September 22, 1952, she was stricken with polio and rushed to Jefferson Davis Hospital, Houston's Polio Center. The baby, little Benjamin Rex, was born January 7, 1953. Three weeks later, Anna left the hospital—still on crutches.

Just one year later, spondylitis, a disease similar to polio, entered into Anna's life. This left her confined to a wheelchair.

April 25, 1955 they arrived in Wichita Falls, Texas where Bill was stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base. On the first Sunday, Bill and Anna and another young couple were watching a religious television program in their home. The program was concerning God's love and His power. He was presented as a good God. One Who is able to heal. At the close of the program there was prayer for those viewing the program.

Bill shot a quick glance at his wife sitting across the room from him. He and the other couple were praying quietly to themselves. He said, "At that precise moment a strange feeling entered into Anna's frail body and she said there was a general tingling throughout her body. Her legs felt strange and alive. An overwhelming compulsion told her to GET UP AND WALK."

"Honey," she said, "help me get up." She grasped his hands and pulled herself up from the divan with her own power. Bill watched apprehensively. She lurched forward with staggering, unsteady steps. In panic, Bill grabbed for Anna's hand and attempted to steady her. "Turn me loose!" she exclaimed. "I'm going to walk. God has hold of me." Anna W. did walk. Her unsteady steps grew firm. She tossed back her head and cried exultantly, "The Lord has healed me!"

She picked up little Benny, raised him high over her head and laughed with the thrill of full motherhood. This was 28 months old. This was the first time she had ever had strength to lift him.

What an excited group of people! Anna was crying and laughing, and Harold and Bill were giving happy shouts of praise for the miracle of deliverance. Anna was healed! Anna is walking today.

Here is the story of the Wichita Falls miracle that has been published in every major newspaper in the United States and broadcast over several radio networks. It happened on May 1, 1955 at 1:53 p. m., Sunday afternoon.

OLD FIDDLER'S PICNIC
On Saturday, August 3rd, there will be held at Lenape Park on the historic Brandywine, some four miles from West Chester, Pa. and 15 miles north of Wilmington, Del., the 29th Annual Old Fiddlers picnic which is largely attended by many persons from a number of States.

This old fashioned frolic lasts from ten in the morning until midnight. All fiddlers, musicians, singers and dancers—old and young, are invited to take part. Warren Mercer of Corner Ketch and Christian Sanderson of Chadds Ford will serve as Co-Chairman of the day.

Shirley and Fern Sentz, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sentz, Donegal Springs road, are spending two weeks with their uncle and aunt, Rev. and Mrs. Paul Martin Jr., Hillsville, Va.

Barry Brubaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nissley Brubaker, Marietta avenue, is spending this week at the Harrisburg YMCA camp.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leaman are spending two weeks in Perry county on vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Way, daughter Karen and house guest Mary Smith went to Pine Grove Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Rainbolt and daughters spent the week end at Atlantic City, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Hirma Detwiler, N. Barbara St. purchased the newly-constructed home on South Delta street from Jones and Zink, the builders. They plan to move before August 1.

Holstein Herds Are Classified

The herds of two Holstein breeders in this area have been officially classified for type by Robert E. Strickler, Iola, Kansas, an official inspector on the staff of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Results are as follows: Henry M. Hess—26 animals classified—1 "Very Good", 7 "Good Plus", and 17 "Good".

A. W. Wickenheiser—26 animals classified—1 "Very Good", 9 "Good Plus", and 13 "Good".

The program in continuous operation since 1929—provides the official means of comparing the conformation of living animals with that of the True-Type Holstein cow or bull.

Participation is currently at an all-time high level with upwards of 30,000 registered Holsteins inspected and officially classified each year.
