Way Back When

By Martha Rainbolt

10 YEARS AGO
Mr. Emanuel Hendrix returned to his home on East Donegal St., Sunday, after having been a patient at the Lancaster General Hospital the past nine weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morton and Mr. and Mrs. George Myers spent the weekend with Miss Carrie Leininger at Reading.

Mr. George Myers, New Haven Street, quietly celebrated his 76th birthday on Wednesday.

30 YEARS AGO
Mr. William Mateer, North Market Street, sustained several bruises and a cut on his face when he accidentally fell down a flight of steps at his home the other evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Scott announced the birth of a daughter, Margaret on Monday morning.

Mr. Charles Staley, Florin, has one of the largest potato crops he has ever grown. It will yield about 400 bushels per acre.

Mr. Peter White bought an Overland car on Saturday and while out on Sunday he met with an accident. Mr. White escaped unhurt but his car is badly wrecked.

50 YEARS AGO
While Miss Esther Bowman was pushing a go-cart across the Marietta Street bridge this forenoon, she sprained her ankle quite severely. Dr. McCann rendered medical attention.

Mrs. Levi G. Dillinger and little daughter have gone to Steelton on a visit to the former's aunt.

Misses Anna and Mary Reist of Mount Joy entertained a number of their friends at their home on Friday evening.

Mrs. Adeline Strickler has purchased a poll parrot.

A reunion will be held at the home of Wm. Easton on Sunday.

New water pipes were put in from the main to the house at the Bopp property occupied by Amos Shickley. Abram B. Earhart of East Donegal and Miss Cora W. Tyson of Rapho have joined the matrimonial ranks.

PLANS PARK
Jonas Brubaker, owner of the triangle plot of land opposite the Donegal high school, has made several changes in the wooded area during the past month. A pavilion has been erected, picnic tables have been placed in the structure and a brick fireplace has been erected.

PLATTER CHATTER

By Nancy Rainbolt

The music business is having a rough time right now, and is in a less stable position than it has been in the last 3 years. The question is the same all over, "Where do we go from here?" Many critics have said rock'n' roll is fading, but take a look at the top charts, and you'll find most of the popular tunes have that rhythm so necessary for the success of a song, which is described as rock'n' roll.

There has been a definite trend to the ballad-type song along with the above mentioned. Ballad singing is not entirely connected with what is generally classified as a pure pop, but with country and rhythm and blues artists as well.

Of course not so long ago the trend was to Calypso singing. Harry Belafonte was the originator of this in the U. S. However, of all the discs released, few made any real sales. The question remains, "Where do we go from here?" I guess only time will take care of this controversial question. One never knows when another Elvis Presley will sneak into the picture.

Speaking of Elvis, he is doing swell with the tunes from his current motion picture, "Loving You". Here are 3 good ones — "Mean Woman Blues", "Let's Have a Party", and of course "Teddy Bear", rated number one across the country.

"Long, Lonely Nights", by Lee Andrews and the Hearts has been around some little time now, but it is still a great favorite. "To The Isle", by the Five Satins is well worn with the playing it has gotten.

"The Hound", a dock'n'roll broadcast from Buffalo, N. Y. has been introducing a line of new platters. "Don't Tell Me Your Troubles", by Jimmy Bowen is catching on fast. A girl that is going places with "I Took One Look at You", is Carol Fran.

Mickey and Sylvia have a new sound called "Love is a Treasure". Little Richard is tearing things apart with "Dip Bop Bip". It's a real fast rocker something like "Jenny Jenny".

Remember Shirley and Lee's big one "Let the Good Times Roll"? That was in December. Now they have another one going, "Rock With The Clock".

A lively platter "Whole Lotta Shakin' Goin On", by Jerry Lee Lewis is climbing at a very fast pace. Everyone seems to go for it in a big way. (Incidentally, Jerry Lee Lewis is not the Jerry Lewis we all knew as the Dean Martin - Jerry Lewis team. This is a newcomer to the business. And doing very well).

The great Sarah Vaughan has a gone modern with "Please Mr. Brown". It has a real nice beat. A pretty instrumental "Swingin' Sweethearts" is done by Hugo Winterhalter and his orchestra.

Maybe the Crewcuts have a big smash with their latest effort, "I Sit In My Window." I believe this one might make some good progress in the right direction.

Joel Grey is making his debut on Capital with a nice pastime, and song, "Moonlight Swim". Sounds like fun, huh?

This might bring back memories, I hope pleasant ones. Here is the Top Ten listing of August 16, 1947.

1. Peg O' My Heart.
2. That's My Desire.
3. I Wonder, I Wonder, I Wonder.
4. I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now.
5. Chi-Baba, Chi-Baba.
6. Across the Valley From The Alamo.
7. Ask Anyone Who Knows.
8. Tallahassee.
9. I Wish I Didn't Love You So.
10. Mam'selle.
