Registration Place Named

Registration for voters in Mount Joy Borough will be held in the local firehouse Saturday, September 7. In order for residents to be eligible to vote in the November elections who had not previously been eligible, the special day was announced. The place for the registration had previously been set for Newcomer's Hardware store but the change has been made to the firehouse; - in the lounge to the rear of the building on the first floor.

CHICKEN HOUSE DESTROYED BY FIRE

Damages in excess of $3,000 occurred last week on the Walter Gish property, Mount Joy R2, when fire caused by sparks from burning paper ignited a 30x40 two story frame chicken house. David Charles, Rheems fire chief, said they were burning trash near the house and sparks fanned by the breeze ignited the building. When firemen arrived the strong gusts of wind had fanned the flames out of control. The company was hampered by lack of water and was forced to lay a mile and a half of hose from a Rheems hydrant. Mr. Gish estimated his building loss at $2,500. There were 500 laying hens destroyed in the fire also.
