Way Back When

By Martha Rainbolt

50 YEARS AGO

Sept. 4, 1907
The residence of John Zink on Columbia Avenue, has been quarantined for diphtheria, Gertie, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hendrix being affected.

Miss Lou Kuhns returned home last Saturday from Crystal Beach, Canada, Niagara Falls and Buffalo, N. Y., where she had been spending the summer.

Simon K. Snyder had a slight stroke of apoplexy on Thursday morning, while driving in his buggy. He fell out on the street, where he was picked up and given medical attention. He has partly recovered.

30 YEARS AGO

September 7, 1927
Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Heilig, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Tryon and Mrs. Bramell, and Miss Ethel Dey spent Monday at Annapolis, Md., where they visited Dr. Heilig's son, Robert, who was recently appointed to the Naval Academy.

Mr. George Ebersole, who was employed at the Grey Iron Casting Company for some time was promoted to assistant superintendent on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown visited at Lancaster on Saturday.

Rev. I. A. MacDannald, of this place, made an address at the Wiggins family reunion at Long's Park near Lancaster Saturday.

10 YEARS AGO

Sept. 4, 1947
Rev. G. M. Rutter, Rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, has resigned as pastor here and will move to Florida this week.

C. N. Hershey found an old note dated March 21, 1850. "Ninety days after date I promise to pay Mary Brubaker on order 1 cent with interest for value received. Signed, Levi Brubaker."

Mr. Christ Hershey, west of Florin, tells us that in 1852 Florin was called Springville, in 1865 it was called Spring Garden and later Florin, but he does not know how it got its present name.

Mr. Charles Pennell spent several days in New York where he witnessed the Legion parade.

Mr. J. O. Brubaker of near Mt. Joy, left on Thursday for Chicago, Ill. where he is enrolled as a student at the Moody Bible Institute.
